

Board member Jan Barchan resigns from Studsvik's board of directors

Board member Jan Barchan has today announced that he requests his own resignation from Studsvik's board of directors. Jan Barchan has expressed his wish to step back from formal board duties after many years of service, in light of his age and in the interest of facilitating a generational renewal within the board. Jan Barchan has been a board member of Studsvik since 2004. He remains fully supportive of Studsvik's continued development and of the major shareholder Armada Investment's strategy and long-term direction

"On behalf of the board, I would like to thank Jan Barchan for his many years of commitment and valuable contributions to Studsvik's development", says Jan Bardell, Chairman of the board of Studsvik.

"Jan Barchan has been a steadfast and prudent steward of Studsvik for over two decades. When many peers in the nuclear industry faltered, Studsvik found a way – a testament to Jan's and the board's strategic leadership. Today, Studsvik stands well-positioned to enter an exciting new chapter of growth and entrepreneurial dynamism", says Daniel S. Aegerter, Armada Investment AG.

For more information, please contact:

Jan Bardell, Chairman of the board, Studsvik AB (publ), jan.bardell@studsvik.com

Om Studsvik

Studsvik offers a range of advanced technical services to the global nuclear power industry. Studsvik's business focus areas are fuel and materials technology, reactor analysis software, decontamination and radiation protection as well as technical platforms for handling, conditioning and volume reduction of radioactive waste. The company has more than 75 years' experience of nuclear technology and radiological services. Studsvik has approx. 540 employees in 7 countries and the company's shares are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm.

www.studsvik.com