Vessel sale of SBS Cirrus

Viking Supply Ships has, through its wholly owned subsidiary Viking Supply Ships Limited, sold the 1985 built platform supply vessel SBS Cirrus. The transaction is motivated by Viking Supply Ships' strategy to focus on modern tonnage. The vessel has been delivered to its new owners yesterday, 16 September 2014. The sale of the vessel will have a positive impact of NOK 0.8 million on the third quarter results.

After the sale of SBS Cirrus, Viking Supply Ships' fleet now consists of eight anchor handling tug supply vessels and five platform supply vessels.
