

Curriculum Vitae

ENCL.

Antti Ritvos

Born November 3, 1953 Helsinki, Finland

Education

MSc (Engineering, Technical Physics), Helsinki University of Technology 1979

BA (Physics and Astronomy), University of Helsinki 1975

Work History

Mercuri Urval

2005 - Nov 2007 Vice President, The Executive Partnership

General Electric Corp. (GE)/ Instrumentarium Oyj

1986-2004 several positions as follows:

2003-2004	GE Healthcare Information Technologies, Vice President and General Manager of Global Technology.
2000-2003	President, Patient Monitoring Business Area of Instrumentarium Oyj, prior to the acquisition of Instrumentarium by GE.
1999-2000	”Facilitator of the Future”, member of the Board of Datex-Ohmeda Division of Instrumentarium.
1998	Integration Leader of Ohmeda acquisition by Instrumentarium.
1997-1998	Director, Business Units (Datex-Engström)
1995-1996	General Manager, Anesthesia Machine Business Unit
1993-1994	Director New Product Programs, Datex Division
1989-1992	Marketing Director, Datex
1987-1989	Product Group Manager
1986-1987	Business Development Manager for Dutch Pulmonary Physiology

Lasertek Oy

1983-1986 R&D Director, medical laser equipment

Nokia

1980-1983 R&D Engineer, fiber optics

Positions of Trust

Oy Sten Ab, board member since 2004

Wristop Oy, board member since 2007

URSA r.y. (Finnish Astronomical Association), board member since 2006