Changes in Pihlajalinna's Management Team

Pihlajalinna Plc is simplifying the company's operating model in order to strengthen its profitable growth and financial position. As part of the change, the Group's Commercial operations will be integrated into the Private health services business and the Group's general administration. In addition, the Group's HR function will be merged into the business operations.

"We will strengthen the company's performance and profitability with sufficient measures. By simplifying operations, we are moving closer to the business operations and day-to-day management," says Joni Aaltonen, CEO of Pihlajalinna.

With the changes, the members of the Management Team, Chief Commercial Officer Sari Nevanlinna and Chief People Officer Kati Raassina, will leave the company.

"I would like to thank both Sari Nevanlinna and Kati Raassina for their contribution to Pihlajalinna. Under Sari's leadership, the omni-channel commercial strategy and implementation has advanced significantly. The key strategic initiatives around service development and user experience will continue in the new operating model. Kati has strengthened Pihlajalinna's human resource management. Several initiatives to enhance company culture will continue development," says Aaltonen.
