Change in Pihlajalinna's Management Team: Mika Videman appointed as Chief People and Culture Officer

Pihlajalinna Plc strengthens its management team by nominating Mika "Vidi" Videman as Chief People and Culture Officer as of 1 October 2024. He has been supporting Pihlajalinna as the Group's interim HR Director since autumn 2023. Videman has diverse experience in human resources management, business leadership, and transformation. He has been working as Fazer Group's EVP, Human Resources from 2011 to 2019 and in various senior level positions at Nokia Corporation from 1995 to 2010. He has also worked as an entrepreneur on several occasions throughout his career and helped companies of various sizes with HR and change management challenges.

– At Pihlajalinna, well-being and motivated professionals are the foundation of our business. Their high-quality expertise and employee satisfaction enable us to provide impactful services across Finland. We work in a highly employee-intensive social and healthcare market, so it is important that our work community and culture attract and retain employees. I'm very pleased that Videman will become a permanent part of our leadership team, says Tuomas Hyryläinen, CEO of Pihlajalinna.

– Pihlajalinna and the entire healthcare market are undergoing a very interesting transformation. As a company, we are influencing how healthcare services are provided in Finland and how citizens access them. Pihlajalinna's employees have exceptional expertise and dedication to this meaningful work. It is a privilege to be part of this great team and to contribute to the success of the company and its employees. Together with the people of Pihlajalinna, we are building even more impactful healthcare services and the strongest corporate culture in the industry, says Mika Videman.
