

SimCorp EMEA signs a large contract

SimCorp EMEA announces that it has signed a large, 7-year subscription license contract with an asset owner institution.

The institution will leverage SimCorp's full front-to-back product suite across the institution's entire range of assets, including public and private markets.

The move to SimCorp will enable more efficient execution of the institution's global investment strategies, streamlining and consolidating the institution's solution landscape and setup - driving efficiency and ensuring agility.
