Tryg A/S / Miscellaneous

08.02.2012 17:03

During the past ten years, Tryg has developed its business operations in Finland for private customers and small businesses.

The formation has required many financial resources and Tryg has still not obtained a satisfactory market share or satisfactory financial outcome from the Finnish business.

Based on this, Tryg's Supervisory Board and Executive Management have decided to reconsider the strategy for the Finnish business. This will take place in the coming 12 months. All possibilities will be assessed, including ownership, niche specialisation, partnership and also continuation of the current business model.
