Safe-Harbor Statement

This presentation may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to, among others, expectations of the business environment in which the Company operates, projections of future performance, perceived opportunities in the market, potential future credit experience, and statements regarding the Company's mission and vision. These forward-looking statements are based upon current management expectations, and may, therefore, involve risks and uncertainties. The Company's actual results, performance, or achievements may differ materially from those suggested, expressed, or implied by forward-looking statements due to a wide range of factors including, but not limited to, the general business environment, interest rates, the California real estate market, competitive conditions between banks and non-bank financial services providers, regulatory changes, and other risks detailed in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, as amended. Forward-looking statements are effective only as of the date that they are made and the Company assumes no obligation to update this information.

Attractive Inland Empire Market

- “Housing construction in the Inland Empire should continue to be one of the most vibrant in the nation.”

Source: California Building Industry Association 2006 Housing Forecast.

- “The Inland Empire will continue to be California’s fastest-growing urban area over the next 10 years, gaining 10,000 people a year through 2010. Many companies in the past few years have opened new offices or moved to the Inland Empire to accommodate shorter commutes and more affordable housing for employees”

- “Riverside and San Bernardino Counties comprise the best market in the country for constructing warehouses and new distribution centers. An ever-increasing amount of cargo transported through the region has turned the Inland Empire into a major distribution center and led to the development of modern warehouse and distribution facilities.”
