

Arendals Fossekompani: Invitation to investor lunch

Arendals Fossekompani ASA (OSE:AFK) invites investors to an investor lunch on Monday 13, November 2023, at 11.30 CET.

The lunch will take place at Carnegie, located at Aker Brygge, Fjordalléen 16, 5th floor in Oslo.

During the lunch, CEO Benjamin Golding and CFO Lars Peder Fensli will present Arendals Fossekompani's financial results for the third quarter of 2023, based on the report published on 10 November. Additionally, Bjørn Petersen, CEO of portfolio company ENRX, will provide an in-depth overview of ENRX.

Arendals Fossekompani's third quarter report and presentation material will be available on <https://newsweb.oslobors.no/> and <http://www.arendalsfossekompani.com> at approximately 08:10 CET on Friday, 10 November 2023.

Registration, please send an e-mail to: anne.myren@carnegie.no

For more information, please contact: Anne Myren, Corporate Access Manager, Carnegie

Arendals Fossekompani | www.arendalsfossekompani.no

Arendals Fossekompani (AFK) is a long-term industrial investment company that owns energy- and technology-related companies which enable the energy transition and next generation industrial technologies. AFK operates globally in several future-oriented industries, including 3D printing, wireless charging, algo trading, satellite services, battery technology, software, and digitization. AFK was established in 1896 and has been a producer of renewable hydro power for more than 100 years. The company is headquartered in Arendal, Norway and listed at the Oslo Stock Exchange.