

PRESS RELASE DATED 2016-01-18

Axactor opens new collection call center in Spain

With effect from today, a new amicable operations center with 30 employees has been established in Valladolid, Spain. By end of January we expect to deploy additional 30 new agents. This is in order to improve performance on existing client base, and to prepare for expected growth from anticipated new 3rd party contracts and portfolio acquisitions.

The new center in Valladolid will enable Axactor/ALD to improve productivity and cost position in the Spanish market, and will position the company to gain future scale advantages.
