Press Release

Tech Mahindra Signs an Outsourcing Contract for Application Maintenance and Development with Volvo Car Corporation

India/Sweden – September 12 2013: Tech Mahindra Ltd. a global IT, Engineering and Business services company specializing in providing connected solutions to enable future-ready digital enterprises, today announced that they have been chosen as a Strategic Partner for Application Maintenance and Development by the Volvo Car Corporation (Volvo Cars).

This partnership will provide Volvo Cars with a service to maintain and develop a wide range of applications across the business and to develop and implement new applications as part of its drive to increase efficiency and reduce costs.

Starting in September 2013, the contract with Tech Mahindra will provide Volvo Cars with Application maintenance and development across multiple domains, including Manufacturing, Product Development, Marketing, Sales and Reporting.

"We are delighted to be selected by Volvo Cars to support this suite of applications and to develop and implement new applications to help them in their drive to increase efficiency and reduce business costs. Tech Mahindra was selected for its proven track record of delivering large scale application maintenance and development and for its global reach and scale. We see this contract as an opportunity to increase our contribution to Volvo cars and further develop our business in the region. Our plans include proactive investment and recruitment from both local universities and the local business domain pool." says Vikram Nair, Head - Europe, Tech Mahindra
