

DOF Subsea secures contracts in Africa

DOF Subsea has secured 2 contracts totaling more than 160 vessel days for Skandi Seven and Skandi Skansen in Africa.

Skandi Seven has commenced operations for a repeat international energy company in Angola, delivering integrated FSV services, project management & engineering. DOF Subsea will during this contract deliver onshore and offshore work scopes within deep-water field development and maintenance duties towards existing subsea infrastructure.

Skandi Skansen shall shortly commence mobilization in the North Sea to deliver a mooring refurbishment and installation project for a key Client in Ghana. In water depths up to 1000 meters, Skandi Skansen shall execute a variety of mooring activities.

The CEO, Mons Aase, states that he is very pleased with the contract awards, increasing the Company's footprint in strategic important areas in the winter season.
