

DOF Subsea has chartered a second Jones Act vessel to support ongoing operations in the Gulf of Mexico (GOM)

Following on from the charter of the Ross Candies, DOF Subsea, a subsidiary of DOF ASA, has entered into an agreement with Otto Candies for the charter of the Jones Act compliant vessel Chloe Candies for a firm period of two years. The charter period commenced in May, with the intent to utilise the vessel to support operations for existing North American clients in the GOM.

In addition, DOF Rederi has sold the vessel Skandi Sotra to an international buyer with delivery in first half of 2022.
