

EAM Solar ASA enters into Market Making Agreement

30th April 2013

EAM Solar ASA has on 30 April 2013 entered into a Market Making Agreement with Carnegie AS for the company's shares. The purpose of the agreement is to increase the liquidity of the shares of the company, which is listed on Oslo Stock Exchange. The Agreement is in accordance with the standard requirements of Oslo Stock Exchange.

For further information, please contact:

Audun W. Iversen, CEO, phone +47 916 16 250, audun@eamsolar.no

Viktor E. Jakobsen, Director , phone +47 916 11 009, viktor@eamsolar.no

About EAM Solar:

EAM Solar is a utility company that acquires and operates solar power plants. The Company currently owns solar PV power plants in Italy, acquired during in 2011/12. The plants are operating under long-term sales contracts. EAM Solar acquires power plants that are commissioned, connected to the grid and in power production at the time of financial close with the geographical focus on Europe.

This information is subject of the disclosure requirements pursuant to section 5-12 of the Norwegian Securities Trading Act.