

Elkem ASA temporarily closes head office on 6 March due to coronavirus

Oslo, 6 March 2020

Elkem has decided to temporarily close its head office at Drammensveien 169, Oslo in Norway, on Friday 6 March due to a confirmed case of coronavirus.

The affected individual is in good health but has been quarantined after dialogue with medical personnel, in line with public health authorities' recommendations.

The office will be professionally cleaned over the weekend, as a precautionary measure.

The temporary closure of the head office is not expected to impact Elkem's operations.
