

Kongsberg Automotive appoints new Head of Investor Relations

Zurich, August 22, 2022: Kongsberg Automotive (KA) has appointed Mads Langaard as the new Head of Investor Relations (IR), effective August 22, 2022.

As the Head of Investor Relations, Mads will help communicate KA's equity story and play a key role in strengthening the company's relationships with shareholders, analysts, bondholders, and banks.

Mads comes to KA from Frigaard Gruppen, where he has served as the Chief Financial Officer. He has a background in financial journalism and has worked with Finansavisen in Norway. Mads holds an Executive MBA from the Norwegian School of Economics (NHH).

"With Mads on the team, I look forward to continuing to build an enduring relationship with KA's investor community as we focus on innovation and invest in growth," says Joerg Buchheim, President & CEO.
