

Kongsberg Automotive appoints new Executive Vice President, People & Culture

Zurich, August 14, 2023: Kongsberg Automotive (KA) has appointed Oscar Jaeger as Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) and Executive Vice President, People & Culture, effective August 1, 2023.

Oscar joined KA in 2021 as Vice President HR for Specialty Products Division and Global Purchasing. Since January 1, 2023, Oscar has served as the interim Executive Vice President, HR.

He will be a member of the Group Leadership Team and will be based in KA Gothenburg, Sweden.

Oscar joined KA from Volvo Group where he held several senior HR leadership positions since 2006. He holds a Bachelors' degree in Human Resources Development and Labor Relations from the University of Gothenburg.

"Oscar brings the necessary experience and understanding of our industry to support the change and transformation needed to succeed. He brings broad international leadership experience, great team spirit and passion for people development," says Linda Nyquist-Evenrud, interim President & CEO of KA.

"I am excited to continue to drive the People and Culture agenda for KA. We have a great team in place and a proud history, and we have exciting initiatives in the pipeline. I am looking forward to contributing to KA's future and long-term success." says Oscar Jaeger.
