

Nordic Mining wins appeal case against Artic Mineral Resources in Borgarting Court of Appeal

Reference is made to the stock exchange notice from Nordic Mining ASA ("Nordic Mining" or the "Company") on 17 November 2021 regarding Artic Mineral Resources ("AMR") appeal of the ruling from Oslo District Court.

The Borgarting Court of Appeal has today ruled in favour of Nordic Mining's wholly owned subsidiary, Nordic Rutile AS. The ruling received today confirms that Nordic Rutile has exclusive right to all minerals in the Engebø deposit - within the limits of the Norwegian Mining Act - in line with the operating licence granted by the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries in May 2022. The court ruled that AMR shall pay all legal expenses.

"The ruling from Borgarting Court of Appeal is as expected. On behalf of our shareholders, we appreciate the court's confirmation that our extraction rights remain valid and that we have the right to extract and utilize garnet and all other minerals in the Engebø deposit", says CEO Ivar S. Fossum.
