

Supreme Court to hear appeal by Artic Mineral Resources

Reference is made to the stock exchange notice from Nordic Mining ASA ("Nordic Mining" or the "Company") on 30 November 2022 relating to the appeal by Artic Mineral Resources ("AMR") on the ruling from the Borgarting Court of Appeal.

The Supreme Court's appeals committee has today informed that the appeal in the case between AMR and Nordic Rutile AS ("NRU") will be heard before the Supreme Court. The hearing is tentatively scheduled to take place before the summer 2023.

The Oslo District Court and the Borgarting Court of Appeal both ruled in favour of NRU and concluded that AMR shall pay NRU's legal expenses. The court rulings were in line with the operating licence granted by the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Fisheries in May 2022.

NRU maintain that AMR's claims have no merit and will continue to defend the case rigorously and is confident that the ruling from the Supreme Court will be in NRU's favour, i.e. in line with the previous rulings.
