

Company update - August 10, 2021

CEO Bjørn Tore Larsen

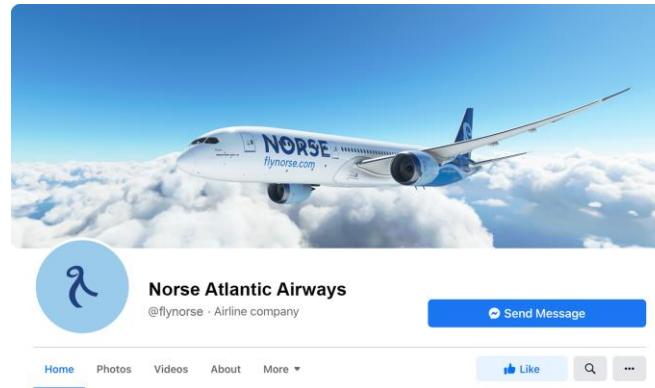

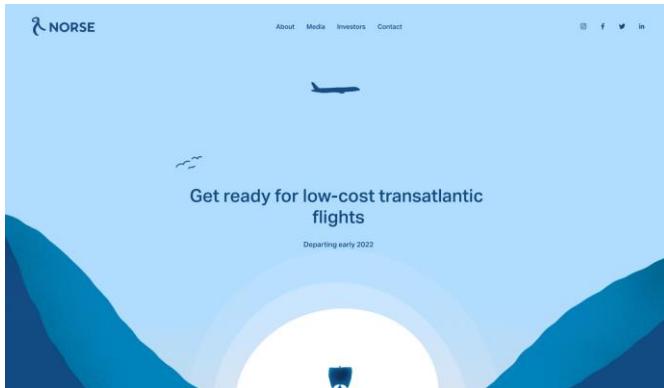

Great welcome!

Since our launch of future low-cost long-haul travel, there has been great interest in Norse on both sides of the Atlantic.

People who want to be a part of the team, airports, tourism organizations, media, politicians, and authorities have shown great interest in our company.

Our brand

Developed by a small in-house team and a local agency, our branding is inspired by the innovative longships that connected Europe with North America.

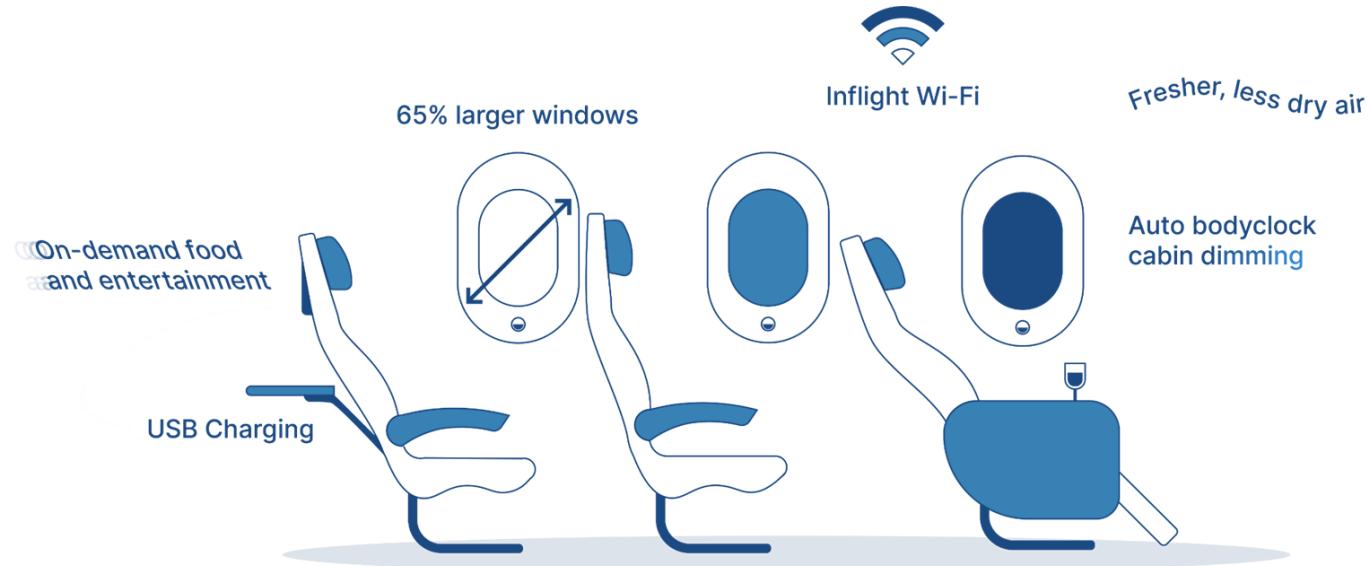

NORSE

Our fleet

We have competitive long term leases for 15 Boeing 787 Dreamliners, the most efficient, environmentally friendly and comfortable aircraft in the industry.

Collaboration key to success

Flight attendant union signs agreement for 700
jobs with Norse Atlantic

On track

- We are ready to start once flights once global travel restrictions are lifted and demand for transatlantic flights return.
- We expect that demand will resume late Q1 or early Q2 2022.
- We anticipate all our 15 Dreamliners will be flying customers between Europe and the U.S. by summer 2022.
- Our ticket sales will begin approximately three months prior to our anticipated first flight.
