

Observe Medical has seen successful customer conversions in Switzerland and Slovenia and receives additional orders

Oslo, August 21, 2025 – Observe Medical ("the Company" or "Observe Medical") has received additional orders from the distributor in Switzerland after several successful hospital conversions and also receives first orders from new distributor in Slovenia after hospital product evaluations.

Jørgen Mann, CEO of Observe Medical, commented: " The Swiss market is a very critical market in terms of product performance and quality which is why we are very happy that UnoMeter™ Safeti™ Plus has now again been confirmed as superior when compared to our competitors and as a great fit with customer expectations. Also in Slovenia, UnoMeter™ Safeti™ Plus has been evaluated against competitor products and user expectations and has come out on top. In both markets we have seen that these results have directly led to new orders"
