

Anders Håvik Løken resigns as CFO

Oslo 28 February 2018 | After ten years in Webstep and having served as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) since 2014, Anders Håvik Løken has handed in his resignation and will leave the company. He will continue in his current position until his successor has been appointed.

Anders has served in various roles in Webstep and became part of group management in 2013, when he was appointed Vice President of Business Development.

"His thorough understanding of our business and financial skills made him an efficient CFO and an excellent partner in management, not least during our successful IPO process last year. On behalf of the Webstep team, I want to express my thanks to Anders for his great efforts and wish him success in his future endeavours," says Kjetil Bakke Eriksen, Chief Executive Officer

"My time in Webstep has been truly rewarding and I will always remain grateful. I have made great friends and had the opportunity to expand my professional skills. Working with inspiring customer cases across multiple industries and seeing the company grow extensively has been a thrill. I leave Webstep knowing that the company is well positioned to continue its successful path", says Anders Håvik Løken.

The search for a new CFO is underway.

About Webstep:

Webstep ASA is a provider of consultancy services to the private and public sector, with the IT expertise necessary to deliver the most demanding digitalisation and IT services. The Webstep Group employs approximately 400 employees in Norway and Sweden, of which more than 360 are expert consultants. Since its establishment in 2000, Webstep has delivered profitable growth. The company offers its services to more than 200 customers annually and has been recognised for its work environment.