

Webstep appoints new CFO

Oslo [7] June 2018: Liv Annike Kverneland is appointed new CFO of Webstep ASA and will assume the position on 1 September 2018.

Ms Kverneland has CFO experience from various IT and consulting businesses. She comes to Webstep from Computas, where she has held the CFO position since August 2016. Prior this, she was CFO at CAMO and Making Waves.

"We are very pleased that Liv Annike Kverneland has accepted the position as CFO. She has strong sector knowledge within IT, digitalisation and consulting, and she is a highly qualified CFO. She will be an important resource in the Webstep management team and in our efforts to be the best partner for clients with a strategic focus on digitalisation", says Webstep CEO Kjetil Eriksen.

Liv Annike Kverneland was formerly CFO at CAMO (2014-2016) and Making Waves (2009-2014) and has six years of experience as manager at PricewaterhouseCoopers (2003-2009). She holds an MBA from the Norwegian School of Economics and Business Administration (NHH), and is a state authorized public accountant from BI - Norwegian Business School.

Ms Kverneland assumes the position on 1 September 2018 and will be part of the executive management team.

"I have followed Webstep for quite some time, and I am impressed by the growth and profitability the company has achieved. I am looking forward to working in such an ambitious and highly competent environment, and taking part in Webstep's journey going forward. The market outlook for the digital services Webstep delivers is bright, and the company's ability to attract the most talented digital heads in the industry gives Webstep a great position for further growth," says Liv Annike Kverneland.
