

Press Release

Maarten Schönfeld leaving as member of the Supervisory Board of Brunel

Amsterdam, 26 October 2012

Maarten Schönfeld is leaving the Supervisory Board of Brunel International N.V. per November 1st 2012. His decision was based on his desire to rearrange the composition of his portfolio that includes various activities.

Mr Schönfeld has provided the Supervisory Board with a wide range of expertise regarding finance, accounting and corporate governance of major international companies. In addition to various non-executive board memberships in the private sector, Schönfeld holds supervisory roles in the public sector, and he wants to rearrange his portfolio.

‘Maarten Schönfeld has been a highly valued and respected member of our Supervisory Board, and we are grateful for what he has done for Brunel’, said Aat Schouwenaar, Chairman of the Supervisory Board.
