IAI industrial systems B.V. will supply three passport personalisation systems to an Asian country

IAI industrial systems B.V. in Veldhoven, The Netherlands, a subsidiary of the stock listed company DOCDATA N.V. in Waalwijk, The Netherlands, will supply three BookMaster One systems for the personalisation of passports to an Asian country. The BookMaster One system will be delivered and installed in 2016. At request of the customer, we will not give more information at this stage.

BookMaster One systems perform the entire personalisation of the passport in one pass through the machine including verification of all operations performed. Thus, the systems turn blank books, inserted in the machine, into fully personalised passports ready for issuing. The BookMaster One has a modular setup which enables customers to procure and employ the total functionality of the systems or parts of it, all at once or in phases.

Being a leading equipment supplier to the Security Printing market, IAI industrial systems supplies systems for securing and/or personalisation of passports, ID-cards, driver licences, banknotes, diplomas and other security documents.

IAI's systems are in use in many countries such as: Netherlands, Belgium, Switzerland, Ireland, UK, Sweden, China, Russia, Ukraine, Canada, Portugal, Estonia, Costa Rica, Poland, Morocco, South Africa, Bulgaria, Algeria, India, Uzbekistan and Thailand.

IAI offers in addition to applications in Security Printing also laser processing systems for special industrial applications.

The listed DOCDATA N.V. exists of two completely autonomous lines of business:
