

Mark van Kemenade leaves Qurius

20 July 2007 – Mark van Kemenade, together with Marijke Wellens and Jan van Rijt founder of Qurius in 1999, has decided to leave Qurius. He resigns from the Executive Board and will leave the company by the 1st of September 2007.

“Winning the global Microsoft Dynamics Partner of the Year is fantastic milestone and a crown on our work”, says van Kemenade, “I look back on eight hectic years with pride and pleasure. The company is well-funded, and has a clear strategy so I am confident that Qurius will have a bright future”.

“We regret but respect Mark’s choice, says Fred Hermans, CEO of Qurius, “ Mark and his co-founders have meant a lot to the company, we will miss their drive and competence”.
