

Qurius Belgium wins international AX roll-out for EskoArtwork

22 August 2008 – EskoArtwork, the worldwide market leader in pre-production and collaboration software for packaging buyers, designers and manufacturers, has selected Qurius to implement Microsoft Dynamics AX. The implementation will firstly take place in the Belgian operation, followed by an international roll-out in 8 countries worldwide. EskoArtwork is a significant customer win for Qurius in the manufacturing segment.

An experienced and reliable partner

Jens Andersen, Corporate IT Manager EskoArtwork: "As a global supplier and integrator of innovative packaging, printing and publishing solutions we need a reliable business information system that can meet our quality and performance demands. Qurius is an experienced partner with a proven track record. We are confident that the implementation process is in good hands and that it will result in a top of the bill IT-system that will help us to improve our business and results."

Qurius will implement Microsoft Dynamics AX 4.0, to be upgraded to AX2009. The first project phase for 50 users is scheduled to go live in January 2009. The further international roll-out for another 200 users will take place in the course of 2009.
