Randstad Holding nv announces that Randstad Belgium has entered into formal discussions with the works councils in Belgium about a restructuring plan. The plan aims to create a more efficient and client-oriented organization. The organizational changes will only occur in management and support functions and involve 165 jobs.

The financial effects will be communicated once the discussions with the employee representative partners have been completed.

In the current challenging market circumstances, the new structure will help us to maintain our solid competitive position in the Belgian market.
