Nyrstar Announces Sale of Contonga

14 December 2016 at 7am CEST

Nyrstar NV ("Nyrstar" or the "Company") today announces that it has entered into Share Purchase Agreements to sell its Contonga mine in Peru and various mineral claims located in Quebec, Canada to subsidiaries of Glencore plc, a global diversified natural resources company, for a total cash consideration of USD 26 million (the "Transactions"). The total cash consideration for the Transactions is made up of USD 21 million for the Contonga mine and USD 5 million for the mineral claims. Closing of the Transactions are subject to customary closing conditions and are expected to occur in the first half of 2017.

The Transactions are part of the sale process for all or the majority of Nyrstar's mining assets which was formally launched in January 2016 and includes the completed sale of the El Toqui mine in Chile and the announced sale of the El Mochito mine in Honduras. Nyrstar is continuing to progress the divestment of mining assets and will issue further updates in due course.

BMO Capital Markets Limited and Lazard & Co. are acting as financial advisors to Nyrstar in connection with the Transactions.
