Summary

Prospective investors are urged to read this prospectus in its entirety.

We are in the business of mineral property exploration. To date, we have conducted the first phase of exploration on our sole exploration target, the Victoria Vein Mining claim, which is located about 8 kilometers northwest of the north end of Tatlayoko Lake, approximately 250 kilometers west of Williams Lake, British Columbia, Canada. We acquired the property from 1698727 Ontario Inc. for $7,500.

Our objective is to conduct mineral exploration activities on the Victoria Vein Mining claim in order to assess whether it possesses economic reserves of gold. We have not yet identified any economic mineralization on the Victoria Vein Mining claim. Our proposed subsequent exploration programs are designed to search for an economic mineral deposit.

We were incorporated on February 9, 2007, under the laws of the state of Nevada. Our principal offices are located at # 606-610 Granville St., Vancouver, British Columbia Canada V6C 3T3. Our telephone number is (604) 568-0059.

Risk Factors

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. The following is a discussion of all of the material risks relating to the offering and our business. You should carefully consider the risks described below and the other information in this prospectus before investing in our common stock. If any of the following risks occur, our business, operating results and financial condition could be seriously harmed. The trading price of our common stock could decline due to any of these risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

If we do not obtain additional financing, our business will fail.

Our current operating funds are less than necessary to complete all intended exploration of the Vic Vein Mining claim, and therefore we will need to obtain additional financing in order to complete our business plan. We currently do not have any operations and we have no income. As well, we will not receive any funds from this registration.

Our business plan calls for significant expenses in connection with the exploration of the Vic Vein claim. While we have sufficient funds to conduct initial exploration on the claim, we will need additional funds to complete any additional recommended exploration. Even after completing initial exploration, we will not know if we have a commercially viable mineral deposit.

We will require additional financing to sustain our business operations if we are not successful in earning revenues once exploration is complete. We do not currently have any arrangements for financing and may not be able to find such financing if required.

Because we have only recently commenced business operations, we face a high risk of business failure.

We have completed the first phase of exploration on the Vic Vein Mining claim. However, we must conduct at least several additional phases of exploration on the claim before we are able to assess whether it contains economic quantities of mineral reserves. Accordingly, we have no way to evaluate the likelihood that our business will be successful. We were incorporated on February 9, 2007 and to date have been involved primarily in organizational activities, the acquisition of an interest in the Vic Vein claim and a small, initial phase of exploration. We have not earned any revenues as of the date of this prospectus. Potential investors should be aware of the difficulties normally encountered by new mineral exploration companies and the high rate of failure of such enterprises. The likelihood of success must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays encountered in connection with the exploration of the mineral properties that we plan to undertake. These potential problems include, but are not limited to, unanticipated problems relating to exploration, and additional costs and expenses that may exceed current estimates.

Prior to completion of our exploration stage, we anticipate that we will incur increased operating expenses without realizing any revenues. We therefore expect to incur significant losses into the foreseeable future. We recognize that if we are unable to generate significant revenues from development of the Vic Vein Mining claim and the production of minerals from the claim, we will not be able to earn profits or continue operations.

There is no history upon which to base any assumption as to the likelihood that we will prove successful, and it is doubtful that we will generate any operating revenues or ever achieve profitable operations. If we are unsuccessful in addressing these risks, our business will most likely fail.

Because of the speculative nature of exploration of mining properties, there is a substantial risk that our business will fail.

The search for valuable minerals as a business is extremely risky. The likelihood of our mineral claim containing economic mineralization or reserves of gold is extremely remote. Exploration for minerals is a speculative venture necessarily involving substantial risk. In all probability, the Vic Vein claim does not contain any reserves and funds that we spend on exploration will be lost. As well, problems such as unusual or unexpected formations and other conditions are involved in mineral exploration and often result in unsuccessful exploration efforts. In such a case, we would be unable to complete our business plan.

Because our continuation as a going concern is in doubt, we will be forced to cease business operations unless we can generate profit in the future.

The report of our independent accountant to our audited financial statements for the period ended July 31, 2009 indicates that there are a number of factors that raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. Such factors identified in the report are that we have no source of revenue and our dependence upon obtaining adequate financing. If we are not able to continue as a going concern, it is likely investors will lose all of their investment.

Because of the inherent dangers involved in mineral exploration, there is a risk that we may incur liability or damages, which could hurt our financial position and possibly result in the failure of our business.

The search for valuable minerals involves numerous hazards. As a result, we may become subject to liability for such hazards, including pollution, cave-ins and other hazards against which we cannot insure or against which we may elect not to insure. The payment of such liabilities may have a material adverse effect on our financial position.

Even if we discover commercial reserves of precious metals on the Vic Vein Mining claim, we may not be able to successfully commence commercial production.

The Vic Vein claim does not contain any known bodies of mineralization. If our exploration programs are successful in establishing quartz diorite and gold of commercial tonnage and grade, we will require additional funds in order to place the Vic Vein claim into commercial production. We may not be able to obtain such financing.

Because our directors have other business interests, they may not be able or willing to devote a sufficient amount of time to our business operations, causing our business to fail.

Our president, Mr. Raffi Khorchidian, intends to devote approximately 30% of his business time providing his services to us. While our director presently possess adequate time to attend to our interests, it is possible that the demands on our director from their other obligations could increase with the result that they would no longer be able to devote sufficient time to the management of our business.

A purchaser is purchasing penny stock which limits his or her ability to sell the stock.

The shares offered by this prospectus constitute penny stock under the Exchange Act. The shares will remain penny stock for the foreseeable future. The classification of penny stock makes it more difficult for a broker-dealer to sell the stock into a secondary market, thus limiting investment liquidity. Any broker-dealer engaged by the purchaser for the purpose of selling his or her shares in our company will be subject to rules 15g-1 through 15g-10 of the Exchange Act. Rather than creating a need to comply with those rules, some broker-dealers will refuse to attempt to sell penny stock.

Each of the above shareholders beneficially owns and has sole voting and investment over all shares or rights to the shares registered in his or her name. The numbers in this table assume that none of the selling shareholders sells shares of common stock not being offered in this prospectus or purchases additional shares of common stock, and assumes that all shares offered are sold. The percentages are based on 1,700,000 shares of common stock outstanding on the date of this prospectus.

None of the selling shareholders:

- (1) has had a material relationship with us other than as a shareholder at any time within the past three years;
- (2) has ever been one of our officers or directors; or
- (3) is a broker-dealer or affiliate of a broker dealer.

Plan Of Distribution

The selling shareholders may sell some or all of their common stock in one or more transactions, including block transactions. Such sales may occur in private transactions arranged by each selling shareholder in accordance with resale exemptions in applicable jurisdictions or through the facilities of the OTC Bulletin Board at prevailing prices.

We are bearing all costs relating to the registration of the common stock. The selling shareholders, however, will pay any commissions or other fees payable to brokers or dealers in connection with any sale of the common stock.

The selling shareholders must comply with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act in the offer and sale of the common stock. In particular, during such times as the selling shareholders may be deemed to be engaged in a distribution of the common stock, and therefore be considered to be an underwriter, they must comply with applicable law and may, among other things:

1. Not engage in any stabilization activities in connection with our common stock;
2. Furnish each broker or dealer through which common stock may be offered, such copies of this prospectus, as amended from time to time, as may be required by such broker or dealer; and
3. Not bid for or purchase any of our securities or attempt to induce any person to purchase any of our securities other than as permitted under the Exchange Act.

The Securities Exchange Commission has also adopted rules that regulate broker-dealer practices in connection with transactions in penny stocks. Penny stocks are generally equity securities with a price of less than $5.00 (other than securities registered on certain national securities exchanges or quoted on the Nasdaq system, provided that current price and volume information with respect to transactions in such securities is provided by the exchange or system).

The penny stock rules require a broker-dealer, prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules, deliver a standardized risk disclosure document prepared by the Commission, which:

- 1 contains a description of the nature and level of risk in the market for penny stocks in both public offerings and secondary trading;
- 2 contains a description of the broker's or dealer's duties to the customer and of the rights and remedies available to the customer with respect to a violation of such duties;
- 3 contains a brief, clear, narrative description of a dealer market, including "bid" and "ask" prices for penny stocks and the significance of the spread between the bid and ask price;
- 4 contains a toll-free telephone number for inquiries on disciplinary actions;
- 5 defines significant terms in the disclosure document or in the conduct of trading penny stocks; and
- 6 contains such other information and is in such form (including language, type, size, and format) as the Commission shall require by rule or regulation;

The broker-dealer also must provide, prior to proceeding with any transaction in a penny stock, the customer:

- 1 with bid and offer quotations for the penny stock;
- 2 details of the compensation of the broker-dealer and its salesperson in the transaction;
- 3 the number of shares to which such bid and ask prices apply, or other comparable information relating to the depth and liquidity of the market for such stock; and
- 4 monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account.

In addition, the penny stock rules require that prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules; the broker-dealer must make a special written determination that the penny stock is a suitable investment for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written acknowledgment of the receipt of a risk disclosure statement, a written agreement to transactions involving penny stocks, and a signed and dated copy of a written suitability statement. These disclosure requirements will have the effect of reducing the trading activity in the secondary market for our stock because it will be subject to these penny stock rules. Therefore, stockholders may have difficulty selling those securities.

Description Of Business

We have commenced operations as an exploration stage company. We are engaged in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties with a view to exploiting any mineral deposits we discover. We own a 100% interest in one mineral claim known as the Vic Vein Mining claim is located approximately 250 km west of Williams Lake, British Columbia, Canada. We purchased this claim from 1698727 Ontario Inc.

There is no assurance that a commercially viable mineral deposit exists on the Vic Vein claim. We do not have any current plans to acquire interests in additional mineral properties, though we may consider such acquisitions in the future.

Mineral property exploration is typically conducted in phases. Each subsequent phase of exploration work is recommended by a geologist based on the results from the most recent phase of exploration. We have not yet commenced the initial phase of exploration on the Vic Vein Mining claim. Once we have completed each phase of exploration, we will make a decision as to whether or not we proceed with each successive phase based upon the analysis of the results of that program. Our director will make this decision based upon the recommendations of the independent geologist who oversees the program and records the results.

Our plan of operation is to conduct exploration work on the Vic Vein claim in order to ascertain whether it possesses economic quantities of gold. There can be no assurance that an economic mineral deposit exists on the Vic Vein Mining claim until appropriate exploration work is completed.

Even if we complete our proposed exploration programs on the Vic Vein claim and we are successful in identifying a mineral deposit, we will have to spend substantial funds on further drilling and engineering studies before we will know if we have a commercially viable mineral deposit.

Vic Vein Mining claim Purchase

On April 18, 2007, we entered into a Mineral Property Staking and Purchase Agreement with 1698727 Ontario Inc. whereby we purchased a 100% interest in the Vic Vein mining claim for $7,500.

Description, Location and Access

The Vic Vein Mining claim is located in the approximately 250 kilometers west of Williams Lake, British Columbia, just 8 kilometers northwest of the north end of Tatlayoko Lake. The property is accessible by a four wheel drive road from the Mt. Skinner access road.

Climate and Topography

The climate is dry and cool in the winter, while summers are generally warm and dry. The topography of the claim is typical of the west Chilcotin area consisting of broad valleys and uplands. Local elevation on the property ranges from 850 to 1850 meters. The vegetation in general consists of jack pine and spruce trees with occasional open meadows and swamps.

Title to the Vic Vein Mining claim

The Vic Vein Mining claim consists of one mineral claim. A “mineral claim” refers to a specific section of land over which a title holder owns rights to explore the ground and subsurface, and extract minerals. .

Claim details are as follows:

Claim Name	Record Number	Expiry Date
Victoria Mining Claim	647243	October 6, 2010

Property Geology and Mineralization

Most of the claim property is underlain by a quartz diorite intrusion. Numerous mafic, intermediate and felsic dykes, up to three meters thick, intrude the quartz diorite. Sporadic chlorite-epidote alteration is present in the intrusion.

The Victoria vein is a mesothermal quartz vein within the quartz diorite intrusion. The length of the vein is undetermined but is at least 125 meters long, of which 110 meters has been exposed by hand trenching.

The vein pinches and swells and appears to be fault controlled. The vein is up to 1.4 meters in thickness, and strikes between 050 and 070 degrees, dipping at least 70 degrees northwest. The host quartz diorite is moderately silicified and chloritized adjacent to the vein and some argillic alteration is present.

The Victoria vein contains up to 5% pyrite, with a trace of chalcopyrite, locally associated with malachite on fracture surfaces. Fractures are common and are rich in limonite and also hematite. Native gold occurs on some fracture surfaces.

Exploration History

Only a limited amount of prospecting and hand trenching had been completed in the vicinity of the Victoria gold vein. Elsewhere, within the immediate region, limited exploration for both base and precious metals has been completed since the 1900's. Sampling, mapping, and geophysical surveying were completed on a grid basis over the Victoria Vein and its extension. In addition limited backhoe trenching was completed on the vein.

Geological Report

We have obtained a geological report on the Vic Vein Mining claim that was prepared by Amanda Tremblay. Ms. Tremblay has an Honors Bachelor of Science degree in Geology from Queens University. The geological report summarizes details concerning the Vic vein claim and makes a recommendation for further exploration work.

Based on her review of geological information relating to the Vic Vein Mining claim, Ms. Tremblay recommends an initial exploration program on the property consisting of grid emplacement, concentrated geological mapping and sampling, geophysical surveys and an initial drill hole.

Grid emplacement involves dividing the claim area into subsections in order to aid the plotting of exploration data.

Mapping involves plotting previous exploration data relating to a property on a map in order to determine the best property locations to conduct subsequent exploration work. Sampling consists of a geologist gathering pieces of rock or soil for mineral testing because they appear to contain valuable mineralization.

Geophysical surveying is the search for mineral deposits by measuring the physical property of near-surface rocks, and looking for unusual responses caused by the presence of mineralization. Electrical, magnetic, gravitational, seismic and radioactive properties are the ones most commonly measured. Geophysical surveys are applied in situations where there is insufficient information obtainable from the property surface to allow informed opinions concerning the merit of properties.

Drilling involves extracting a long cylinder of rock from the ground to determine amounts of metals at different depths. Pieces of the rock obtained, known as drill core, are analyzed for mineral content.

Compliance with Government Regulation

We will be required to comply with all regulations, rules and directives of governmental authorities and agencies applicable to the exploration of minerals in Canada generally, and in British Columbia specifically.

We will have to sustain the cost of reclamation and environmental mediation for all exploration and development work undertaken. The amount of these costs is not known at this time as we do not know the extent of the exploration program that will be undertaken beyond completion of the currently planned work programs. Because there is presently no information on the size, tenor, or quality of any resource or reserve at this time, it is impossible to assess the impact of any capital expenditures on earnings or our competitive position in the event a potentially economic deposit is discovered.

If we enter into production, the cost of complying with permit and regulatory environment laws will be greater than in the exploration phases because the impact on the project area is greater. Permits and regulations will control all aspects of any production program if the project continues to that stage because of the potential impact on the environment. Examples of regulatory requirements include:

- Water discharge will have to meet water standards;
- Dust generation will have to be minimal or otherwise re-mediated;
- Dumping of material on the surface will have to be re-contoured and re-vegetated;
- An assessment of all material to be left on the surface will need to be environmentally benign;
- Ground water will have to be monitored for any potential contaminants;
- The socio-economic impact of the project will have to be evaluated and if deemed negative, will have to be re-mediated; and
- There will have to be an impact report of the work on the local fauna and flora.

Because there will not be any appreciable disturbance to the land during the phase one and two exploration programs on the Vic Vein claim, we will not have to seek any government approvals prior to conducting exploration.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
July 31, 2009

K. R. MARGETSON LTD.CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT*REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Stockholders,
Atlantic Resources Inc.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Atlantic Resources Inc. (An Exploration Stage Company) as of July 31, 2009 and 2008 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit) and cash flows for the years ended July 31, 2009 and 2008 and for the period from February 9, 2007 (Date of Inception) to July 31, 2009. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States of America). Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinions.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of July 31, 2009 and 2008 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for years ended July 31, 2009 and 2008 and for the period from February 9, 2007 (Date of Inception) to July 31, 2009 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, the Company is an exploration stage company and has yet to commence operations, which raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to their planned financing and other matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ATLANTIC RESOURCES INC.
(An Exploration Stage Company)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
July 31, 2009

Note 1 Operations

The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada on February 9, 2007 and is in the exploration stage. The Company is engaged in activities related to the exploration for mineral resources in Canada. In 2007 the Company acquired the rights to a mineral property located in the Province of British Columbia, Canada, and has not yet determined whether this property contains reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of amounts from the property will be dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, confirmation of the Company's interest in the underlying property, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to satisfy expenditure requirements and to complete the development of the property and upon future profitable production or proceeds from the sale thereof.

The Company has adopted July 31 as its fiscal year end.

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

Going Concern

These financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which presumes that the Company will continue operations for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize assets and discharge liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has accumulated a deficit of $44,468 since inception, has yet to achieve profitable operations and further losses are anticipated in the development of its business, raising substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Its ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the ability of the Company to generate profitable operations in the future and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. These financial statements do not reflect the adjustments or reclassifications to the assets and liabilities which would be necessary if the Company was unable to continue its operations. Management plans to obtain short-term loans from the director of the Company.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when a contract is in place, minerals are delivered to the purchaser and collectability is reasonably assured.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies – (cont'd)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying disclosures. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions the Company may undertake in the future, actual results may ultimately differ from the estimates. Management believes such estimates to be reasonable.

Exploration Stage Company

As an exploration stage Company, it is a type of development stage company as defined in Financial Accounting Standard Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification 205-915. Accordingly, the Company devotes substantially all of its present efforts to establish its business and its planned principal operations have not commenced. All losses accumulated since inception have been considered as part of the Company's development stage activities.

Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of issuance to be cash equivalents. As at July 31, 2009, the Company did not have any cash equivalents. (2008 – $nil).

Mineral Property Costs

Past mineral property acquisition, exploration and development costs have been expensed as incurred until such time as economic reserves are quantified, at which time the Company would capitalize all costs to the extent that future cash flows from mineral reserves equal or exceed the costs deferred. The deferred costs will be amortized over the recoverable reserves when a property reaches commercial production. Costs related to site restoration programs will be accrued over the life of the project.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify title to mineral properties in which it has an interest, according to the usual industry standards for the stage of exploration of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee the Company's title. Such properties may be subject to prior agreements or transfers and title may be affected by undetected defects.

Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

The Company computes net loss per share in accordance with FASB Accounting Standard Codification 260, "Earnings Per Share". Basic loss per share is computed using the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the year including stock options, using the treasury stock method, and convertible preferred stock, using the if-converted method. In computing diluted EPS, the average stock price for the year is used in determining the number of shares assumed to be purchased from the exercise of stock options or warrants. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential common shares if their effect is anti dilutive.

ATLANTIC RESOURCES INC.
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share – (cont'd)

Income Taxes

The Company follows FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740, "Accounting for Income Taxes" which requires the use of the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and loss carryforwards and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities and measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Environmental costs

Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate. Expenditures that relate to an existing condition caused by past operations, and which do not contribute to current or future revenue generation, are expensed. Liabilities are recorded when environmental assessments and/or remedial efforts are probable, and the cost can be reasonably estimated. Generally, the timing of these accruals coincides with the earlier of:

- i) Completion of a feasibility study; or
- ii) The Company's commitment to a plan of action based on the then known facts.

Financial Instruments

The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments, consisting of cash and cash equivalents, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and related party payable, approximate their fair value due to the short-term maturity of such instruments. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

Fair Value Measurements

Effective May 1, 2008, the Company adopted SFAS No. 157, 'Fair Value Measurements,' for all financial instruments and non-financial instruments accounted

ATLANTIC RESOURCES INC.
(An Exploration Stage Company)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for at fair value on a recurring basis. SFAS 157 establishes a single definition of fair value and a framework for measuring fair value, sets out a fair value hierarchy to be used to classify the source of information used in fair value measurement and expands disclosures about fair value measurements required under other accounting pronouncements. It does not change existing guidance as to whether or not an instrument is carried at fair value.

SFAS 157 established market and observable inputs as the preferred source of values, followed by assumptions based on hypothetical transaction in the absence of market inputs. The valuation techniques required by SFAS 57 are based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's market assumptions. These two types of inputs create the following fair value hierarchy:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical asset or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. This includes certain pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies and similar techniques that use significant unobservable inputs.

In October 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position No. FAS 157-3, "Determining the Fair Value of a Financial Asset in a Market That Is Not Active" (FSP 157-3), which clarifies the application of SFAS 157 when the market for a financial asset is inactive. Specifically, FSP 157-3 clarifies how (1) management's internal assumptions should be considered in measuring fair value when observable data are not present, (2) observable market information from an inactive market should be taken into account, and (3) the use of broker quotes or pricing services should be considered in assessing the relevance of observable and unobservable data to measure fair value. The guidance in FSP 157-3 became effective immediately.

Derivative Instruments

The Company accounts for derivative instruments according to FASB Accounting Standard Codification 815. These standards establish accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities.

ATLANTIC RESOURCES INC.
(An Exploration Stage Company)
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
July 31, 2009

If certain conditions are met, a derivative may be specifically designated as a hedge, the objective of which is to match the timing of gain or loss recognition on the hedging derivative with the recognition of (i) the changes in the fair value of the hedged asset or liability that are attributable to the hedged risk or (ii) the earnings effect of the hedged forecasted transaction. For a derivative not designated as a hedging instrument, the gain or loss is recognized in income in the period of change. The Company has not entered into derivatives contracts to hedge existing risks or for speculative purposes.

Cash and Currency Risks

The Company incurs expenditures in Canadian and U.S. dollars. Consequently, some assets and liabilities are exposed to Canadian dollar foreign currency fluctuations. As at July 31, 2009, there were no amounts denominated in Canadian dollars included in the financial statements. The Company has cash balances at well-known financial institutions. Balances in U.S. dollars at Canadian institutions are not protected by insurance and are therefore subject to deposit risk. As at July 31, 2009 all cash and equivalents represented cash at Canadian financial institutions.

Foreign Currency Translations

The Company's functional currency is US dollars. Foreign currency balances are translated into US dollars as follows:

Monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Non-monetary assets are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at their acquisition, unless such assets are carried at market or nominal value, in which case they are translated at the period-end exchange rate. Revenue and expense items are translated at the average exchange rate for the period. Foreign exchange gains and losses in the period are included in operations.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company adopts new pronouncements relating to generally accepted accounting principles applicable to the Company as they are issued, which may be in advance of their effective date. Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards if currently adopted would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

Note 3 Mineral Property and Subsequent Event

On April 18 2007, the Company purchased a mineral claim in the Province of British Columbia for $7,500. In 2008, the Company conducted a work program totalling $5,000 to keep the claims in good standing. In 2009, the claim lapsed, but subsequent to the year end, was reinstated and is in good standing until October 6, 2010.

Note 4 Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities represent administrative expenses and professional fees payable and accrued.

Note 5 Due to Related Party

The account represents advances made by a major shareholder and director. There is no interest or stated terms of repayment.

Note 6 Income Taxes

The impact of differences between the Company's reported income tax provision on operating income and the benefit that would otherwise result from the application of statutory rates is noted below. As management cannot determine that it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefit of the net deferred tax asset, a valuation allowance equal to the net deferred tax asset has been recorded.

Balance, July 31	2009	2008
Income tax recovery at statutory rate – 30.2.0% (32.5% in 2008)	$ 3,48	$ 7,754
Temporary differences		8
Income tax rate change		(137)
Valuation allowance	(2,7)	(7,625)
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Net income tax benefit	$ -	$ -

The net deferred tax asset is as follows:

As at July 31	2009	2008
Net operating loss carried forward of $44,041 ($32,467 in 2008)	$ 13,300	$ 10,552
Valuation allowance	(13,3)	(10,55)
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Net income tax benefit	$ -	$ -

The valuation allowance increased $2,749 in 2009 and $7,625 in 2008.

Under normal circumstances the ability to apply the tax loss of $44,041 will expire between 2027 and 2029.

Plan Of Operations

As at July 31, 2009, we had a cash balance of $1,539. Our plan of operation for the next twelve months is to complete the recommended phase two exploration programs on the Vic Vein Mining Claim consisting of a geophysical survey and follow-up mapping. We carried out the first phase of the recommended exploration program in the summer of 2008 at a cost of $5,000. We anticipate that the second phase of the recommended exploration programs will cost approximately $25,000, which is budgeted as follows:

Geophysical survey	$18,500
Follow-up Mapping	$ 2,500
Report writing/consulting	$ 2,500
Operating Supplies	$ 1,500
Total Phase II	$25,000

After the completion of the phase two exploration program, we will have our consulting geologist prepare a report discussing the results and conclusions of the first two phases of exploration. We will also ask her to provide us with a recommendation for additional exploration work on the Vic Vein Mining claim, which will include a proposed budget.

As well, we anticipate spending an additional $15,000 on administrative fees, including fees payable in connection with reporting obligations. Total expenditures over the next 12 months are therefore expected to be approximately $40,000.

We do not have sufficient funds to cover the anticipated exploration expenses associated with the second phase of the exploration program, so we will require additional funding in order to proceed with additional exploration on the Vic Vein claim and to cover administrative expenses. We anticipate that additional funding will be in the form of equity financing from the sale of our common stock or from director loans. We do not have any arrangements in place for any future equity financing or loans.

If we are not successful in raising additional financing, we anticipate that we will not be able to proceed with our business plan. In such a case, we may decide to discontinue our current business plan and seek other business opportunities in the resource sector. Any business opportunity would require our management to perform diligence on possible acquisition of additional resource properties. Such due diligence would likely include purchase investigation costs, such as professional fees by consulting geologists, preparation of geological reports on the properties, conducting title searches and travel costs for site visits.

Our current cash on hand will not be sufficient to acquire any resource property and additional funds will be required to close any possible acquisition. As a reporting company we will need to maintain our periodic filings with the appropriate regulatory authorities and will incur legal and accounting costs. If no other such opportunities are available and we cannot raise additional capital to sustain minimum operations, we may be forced to discontinue business. We do not have any specific alternative business opportunities in mind and have not planned for any such contingency.

Based on the nature of our business, we anticipate incurring operating losses in the foreseeable future. We base this expectation, in part, on the fact that very few mineral claims in the exploration stage ultimately develop into producing, profitable mines. Our future financial results are also uncertain due to a number of factors, some of which are outside our control. These factors include the following:

- our ability to raise additional funding;
- the market price for minerals that may be found on the Vic Vein mineral claim;
- the results of our proposed exploration programs on the mineral property; and

- our ability to find joint venture partners for the development of our property interests

We have not attained profitable operations and are dependent upon obtaining financing to pursue exploration activities. For these reasons our auditors believe that there is substantial doubt that we will be able to continue as a going concern.

Results of Operations

We have had no operating revenues since our inception on February 9, 2007 through July 31, 2009, and have incurred operating expenses in the amount of $44,468 for the same period. Our activities have been financed from the proceeds of share subscriptions and director loans.

We do not anticipate earning revenues unless we enter into commercial production on the Vic Vein claim, which is doubtful. We have not commenced the exploration stage of our business and can provide no assurance that we will discover economic mineralization on the Vic Vein claim, or if such minerals are discovered, that we will enter into commercial production.

For the fiscal year ended July 31, 2009, general and administrative expenses were $5,328 and professional fees were $6,224. For the fiscal year ended July 31, 2008, general and administrative expenses were $5,491, professional fees were $13,366 and we incurred $5,000 in geological, mineral and prospect costs.

During our fiscal year ended July 31, 2009, we incurred a net loss of $(11,552), which resulted in an accumulated deficit of $(44,468).

Our financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. We have expensed all development costs related to our establishment.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We had cash of $1,539 as of July 31, 2009, compared to a cash position of $4,664 at July 31, 2008. Since inception through to and including July 31, 2009, we have raised $29,200 through private placements of our common shares.

We expect to run at a loss for at least the next twelve months. We have no agreements for additional financing and cannot provide any assurance that additional funding will be available to finance our operations on acceptable terms in order to enable us to complete our plan of operations. There are no assurances that we will be able to achieve further sales of our common stock or any other form of additional financing. If we are unable to achieve the financing necessary to continue our plan of operations, then we will not be able to continue our exploration of our mineral claim and our venture will fail.

Off-balance sheet arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements including arrangements that would affect our liquidity, capital resources, market risk support and credit risk support or other benefits.

We have not attained profitable operations and are dependent upon obtaining financing to pursue exploration activities. For these reasons our auditors believe that there is substantial doubt that we will be able to continue as a going concern.

Disclosure Of Commission Position Of Indemnification For Securities Act Liabilities

Our directors and officers are indemnified as provided by the Nevada Revised Statutes and our Bylaws. These provisions provide that we shall indemnify a director or former director against all expenses incurred by him by reason of him acting in that position. The director may also cause us to indemnify an officer, employee or agent in the same fashion.

We have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities is asserted by one of our directors, officers, or controlling persons in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of our legal counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit the question of whether such indemnification is against public policy to a court of appropriate jurisdiction. We will then be governed by the court's decision.

Until _____, all dealers that effect transactions in these securities whether or not participating in this offering, may be required to deliver a prospectus. This is in addition to the dealer's obligation to deliver a prospectus when acting as underwriters and with respect to their unsold allotments or subscriptions.

Indemnification Of Directors And Officers

Our officers and directors are indemnified as provided by the Nevada Revised Statutes (the "NRS") and our bylaws.

Under the NRS, director immunity from liability to a company or its shareholders for monetary liabilities applies automatically unless it is specifically limited by a company's articles of incorporation that is not the case with our articles of incorporation. Excepted from that immunity are:

- (1) a willful failure to deal fairly with the company or its shareholders in connection with a matter in which the director has a material conflict of interest;
- (2) a violation of criminal law (unless the director had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful);
- (3) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal profit; and
- (4) willful misconduct.

Our bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by Nevada law; provided, however, that we may modify the extent of such indemnification by individual contracts with our directors and officers; and, provided, further, that we shall not be required to indemnify any director or officer in connection with any proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person unless:

- (1) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law;
- (2) the proceeding was authorized by our Board of Directors;
- (3) such indemnification is provided by us, in our sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested us under Nevada law; or
- (4) such indemnification is required to be made pursuant to the bylaws.

Our bylaws provide that we will advance all expenses incurred to any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was our director or officer, or is or was serving at our request as a director or executive officer of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, prior to the final disposition of the proceeding, promptly following request. This advanced of expenses is to be made upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay said amounts should it be ultimately determined that the person was not entitled to be indemnified under our bylaws or otherwise.

Our bylaws also provide that no advance shall be made by us to any officer in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, if a determination is reasonably and promptly made: (a) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the proceeding; or (b) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, that the facts known to the decision-making party at the time such determination is made demonstrate clearly and convincingly that such person acted in bad faith or in a manner that such person did not believe to be in or not opposed to our best interests.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the provisions above, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable.
