Through Videotron, the Corporation is one of Canada’s largest telecommunications companies. Videotron is engaged in Internet access, mobile and wireline telephony, television and entertainment services. It is the fourth largest national mobile carrier in Canada in terms of mobile revenue generating units (“RGUs”) and the largest cable operator in Québec based on the number of wireline RGUs. Videotron is also a leader in new technologies, notably through Helix, its home-management and entertainment platform. As of December 31, 2025, Videotron has 4,402,000 subscriber connections to its mobile telephony services, 1,740,100 subscribers to its Internet services, 1,251,200 subscriptions to its television services, and 547,700 connections to its wireline telephony services. Through a comprehensive portfolio of roaming agreements with domestic and international network operators, Videotron’s mobile telephony customers benefit from extensive worldwide coverage.

Through Quebecor Media, Quebecor owned, as at December 31, 2025, all of the equity and voting interests in Videotron.

2.1.2.2 Wireline Services

Videotron's coaxial and fibre-optic network large bandwidth is a key factor in the successful delivery of advanced products and services in Québec. Videotron currently offers a variety of advanced products and services, including Internet access, television, wireline telephony and subscription-based VOD services.

- Internet Access. Leveraging its advanced cable and fibre infrastructure, Videotron offers Internet access services to its customers at download speeds of up to 2.5 Gbps. As part of its Internet access service, Videotron offers its technologically advanced Helix Internet service which delivers reliable internet speeds, a smarter and more powerful Wi-Fi coverage as well as home automation features. The Helix internet service is available using a Helix Fi gateway, an all-in-one product that combines the features of a modem and Wi-Fi router, as well as Wi-Fi pods which, when required, can be plugged into electrical wall outlets to extend a customer's Wi-Fi coverage. Through the Helix Fi app, customers can control their home Wi-Fi network, set time restrictions for children's Internet use, quickly and easily disconnect a device from the network, access advanced security technology and control household smart devices. Videotron is also leveraging the wholesale TPIA regulatory framework to enable the delivery of Internet access and Internet protocol television ("IPTV") services beyond its wireline network footprint, thereby complementing its wireless service offering across its three brands. As of December 31, 2025, Videotron had 1,740,100 Internet access customers. Based on internal estimates, Videotron is the largest provider of Internet access services within the footprint of its network in Québec with an estimated market share of 42.8% as of December 31, 2025.
- Television. Videotron offers a broad variety of television services made available through digital- or IP-based technology. Videotron's IPTV service, Helix TV, is built around voice-controlled assistant technology. Helix offers an enhanced TV experience, integrated search functionality and seamless integration of entertainment services, including Netflix, Prime Video, Apple TV and illico+ (provided customers have a subscription with such services). Videotron allows its customers to customize their choices with the ability to choose between custom or pre-assembled packages with a selection of additional channels, including U.S. superstations and other special entertainment channels. Customers may view programming live, record live programming or access Videotron's VOD service which offers extensive programming choices such as television series, movies and documentaries that are available for free or to rent. These viewing options are also available through the Helix app and online. Available to all Fizz Internet subscribers in Québec since February 2025, the new Fizz TV service differentiates its offering by a pick-and-choose model that lets users build their own TV plan. As of December 31, 2025, Videotron had 1,251,200 customers for its television service.

- Wireline Telephony. Videotron offers wireline telephony service to its residential customers using Voice over Internet Protocol (“VoIP”) technology. As of December 31, 2025, Videotron had 547,700 subscribers to its wireline telephony service.

- (1) To better reflect the activities of the telecommunications segment, prepaid connections with negligible ARPU have been excluded from the mobile telephony connection count.
- (2) RGUs are the sum of subscriptions to the Internet access and television services, plus subscriber connections to the mobile and wireline telephony services.
- (3) Represents customers (or telephony lines) as a percentage of total home passed.
- (4) Penetration of homes passed excluding customers to Internet access, television and wireline telephony services served through Videotron's purchase of wholesale Internet services from third parties.

2.1.4 Pricing of Products and Services

Videotron's revenues are mainly derived from the monthly fees its customers pay for Internet access, television and mobile and wireline telephony services, as well as VOD services. The rates Videotron charges vary based on the market served and the level of service selected. Rates are adjusted regularly. Videotron also offers discounts to its customers who subscribe to more than one of its services, when compared to the sum of the prices of the individual services provided to these customers. As of December 31, 2025, approximately 67% of its Videotron-branded residential customers were bundling two services or more. A one-time installation or activation fee, which may be waived in part during certain promotional periods, may be charged to new customers. Monthly rental payments for equipment, such as Helix Fi gateways or Helix TV terminals, may also be charged depending on the promotional offer.

2.1.5 Network Technology

2.1.5.1 Mobile Services

As of December 31, 2025, Videotron's mobile network reached 73% of the Canadian population, allowing the vast majority of the population of Ontario, Québec, British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba, Canada's five most populous provinces, to benefit from Videotron's mobile services. In addition to the coverage provided by its network, Videotron has roaming agreements with other Canadian mobile carriers to enable its customers to receive mobile service in nearly all other areas in Canada where wireless service is available. Videotron also offers international wireless voice and data services to its customers through roaming agreements with wireless service providers outside Canada.

In 2013, Videotron signed a 20-year agreement with Rogers Communications Inc. ("Rogers") for cooperation and collaboration in the build-out and operation of a shared LTE wireless network in the Province of Québec and the Ottawa region (the "Rogers LTE Agreement"). In September 2014, Videotron launched its joint LTE wireless network with Rogers. Videotron maintains its business independence throughout this agreement, including its product and service portfolios, billing systems and customer data. In April 2023, Videotron and Rogers settled a dispute regarding the Rogers LTE Agreement and therefore, the parties will pursue the joint network until the end of its term in 2033. In Ontario, British Columbia and Alberta, Videotron operates the LTE network that it acquired as a result of the acquisition of Freedom Mobile Inc. ("Freedom"), and this network is not subject to the Rogers LTE Agreement. Videotron's LTE network is the backbone for its 5G network as it is rolled out nationally.

Since 2020, Videotron has been deploying both LTE-A and 5G technologies in its Québec market by leveraging its AWS-3, 600 MHz and 3500 MHz spectrum. Upon the closing of the acquisition of Freedom, Videotron was able to rapidly deploy its holding of AWS-1, AWS-3, 600 MHz and 3500 MHz spectrum licenses to upgrade Freedom's infrastructure and offer 5G services in the Toronto, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Ottawa metropolitan areas along with select cities across Ontario, British Columbia and Alberta. As the roll out of Videotron's 5G/5G+ service continues with the objective of covering its entire footprint, investments will be required to optimize the operation of its network, including the deployment of additional spectrum, network densification with additional macro cells, small cells, in-building systems and distributed antenna systems as well as the addition of radio network equipment. Investing in its wireless network to improve customer experience is a priority for Videotron, particularly in sectors outside Québec where the Freedom brand currently operates.

Videotron holds wireless spectrum licenses in Québec, Southern Ontario, Eastern Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia, spread across the AWS-1, AWS-3, 600 MHz, 700 MHz, 2500 MHz, 3500 MHz and 3800 MHz bands. These licenses qualified Videotron to launch its Mobile Virtual Network Operator (“MVNO”) service in October 2023. The wireless spectrum licenses holdings of Videotron total approximately 6.3 billion MHz per population (MHz-Pop), corresponding to an average of approximately 189 MHz of spectrum per Canadian in the provinces covered by the spectrum held. The following tables summarize Videotron’s spectrum license holdings:

Type of Spectrum	Videotron Licenses	Licenses’ Use
600 MHz	30 MHz in Québec, Eastern and Southern Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia 20 MHz in Manitoba	Used in LTE-A and 5G networks
700 MHz	10 MHz in Québec, Eastern and Southern Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia	Used in LTE-A network
AWS-1	40 MHz in Québec 10 MHz in Southern Ontario and an additional 10 MHz (total of 20 MHz) in major cities in the region (including Toronto) 20 MHz in Alberta and British Columbia	Used in LTE-A and HSPA+
AWS-3	30 MHz in Québec, Eastern and Southern Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia	Used in LTE-A and 5G networks
2500 MHz	- Between 20 MHz and 40 MHz in Québec and Ottawa 20 MHz in Toronto - Between 20 MHz and 30 MHz in major cities in Alberta and British Columbia - Between 20 MHz and 30 MHz in northern rural areas of British Columbia	Used in LTE-A network
3500 MHz	Between 10 MHz and 50 MHz in Québec, Eastern and Southern Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia	Used in 5G and 5G+ networks
3800 MHz	- Between 10 MHz and 90 MHz in Québec, Eastern and Southern Ontario, Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia - Between 80 MHz to 100 MHz of combined 3800 MHz and 3500 MHz spectrum in major cities, including Toronto, Montréal, Vancouver, Ottawa, Calgary, Edmonton, Québec City and Winnipeg	Used in 5G and 5G+ networks

As part of the Rogers LTE Agreement, Videotron also has access to the following spectrum licenses held by Rogers:

Type of Spectrum	Rogers’ Licenses	Licenses’ Use
700 MHz	20 MHz in Québec and Ottawa	Used in LTE network
AWS-1	20 MHz in Québec and Ottawa	Used in LTE network

Videotron plans to continue developing and enhancing its mobile technological offering by densifying network, expanding coverage and increasing download speeds. Videotron’s network is designed to support important customer growth in coming years as well as rapidly evolving mobile technologies.

2.1.5.2 Wireline Services

As of December 31, 2025, Videotron's cable network consisted of fibre-optic cable and coaxial cable, covering approximately 85% of the Province of Québec's estimated 4.1 million residential premises. Its network is the largest broadband network in the Province of Québec and supports direct connectivity with networks in Ontario, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, the Maritimes and the United States.

Videotron has adopted the Hybrid Fiber Coaxial ("HFC") network architecture as the standard for its network. HFC network architecture combines the use of both fibre-optic and coaxial cables. Fibre-optic cable has good broadband frequency characteristics, noise immunity and physical durability and can carry thousands of voice, video, and data signals simultaneously over extended distances. Coaxial cable requires greater signal amplification in order to obtain the desired transmission levels for delivering signals. In most systems, Videotron delivers its signals via fibre-optic cable from the headend to a group of optical nodes and then via coax to the customer premises served by the nodes.

In order to meet the ever-expanding service needs of the customer in terms of video, telephony and Internet access services, Videotron consistently invests to enhance the capabilities of its wireline network. These investments imply, among other things, the deployment of fibre-optic deeper into the network and therefore closer to the customer premises. This fibre deployment translates into an increase, year after year, in the number of nodes and a corresponding decrease in the number of customer premises served by each node. Investments in Videotron's network also include an extension of the upper limit of the radio frequency spectrum available for service offerings. As of December 31, 2025, 89% of Videotron's network has been upgraded to a bandwidth of 1002 MHz, the remaining of its network being at 750 MHz.

Videotron currently uses the DOCSIS 3.1 standard to offer gigabit downstream high speeds across almost its entire network. It is committed to further evolving its network by taking advantage of more advanced communication standards, expanding its spectrum and deploying more fibre with the objective of providing its customers with symmetrical multigigabit speeds across its coverage area. Videotron is notably evaluating the opportunity to upgrade its network with the DOCSIS 3.1+ and DOCSIS 4.0 technologies. In addition, as part of the evolution of its network, Videotron also intends to virtualize and automate many network functions in order to increase operating efficiency and expand capacity. Along with these network enhancements, Videotron continues to expand its wireline network to reach new homes and businesses both within and beyond its existing coverage area, thereby increasing the number of premises passed. To support this expansion, Videotron regularly deploys Passive Optical Network technology, which extends fibre directly to the home using a fibre to the home ("FTTH") architecture. This technology supports speeds of up to 10 Gbps and facilitates future upgrades to even higher capacity services.

2.1.6 Marketing and Customer Care

Videotron's long-term marketing objective is to increase its cash flow through exceptional customer experience, deeper market penetration of its services, development of new services and revenue and operating margin growth per customer. Videotron believes that customers will come to view the connection that it offers as the best distribution channel to their home for a multitude of services. To achieve this objective, Videotron is pursuing the following strategies:

- develop attractive bundle offers to encourage its customers to subscribe to two or more products, which increases customer retention and operating margins;
- continue to rapidly deploy advanced products on all its services – mobile and wireline telephony, Internet access, television and subscription-based VOD – to maintain and increase Videotron's leadership and consequently, to gain additional market share;
- design product offers that provide greater opportunities for customer entertainment and information;
- deploy strong retention strategies aiming to maintain its existing customer base;

- develop targeted marketing programs to attract former customers, households that have never subscribed to certain of its services and customers of alternative or competitive services as well as target specific market segments;
- enhance the relationship between customer service representatives and its customers by training and motivating customer service representatives to promote advanced products and services;
- leverage the retail presence of its Videotron- and Freedom-branded stores and kiosks, third-party commercial retailers, and authorized distributors;
- maintain and promote its leadership in content and entertainment by leveraging the wide variety of services offered by Quebecor Media to its existing and future customers;
- introduce new value-added packages of products and services, which Videotron believes optimizes opportunities to improve customer retention;
- leverage its business market, using its network and expertise with its commercial customer base, to offer additional bundled services to its customers; and
- develop new products, services and digital platforms to respond to the technological needs and continuously evolving consumer behaviours.

Videotron continues to invest time, effort and financial resources in marketing new and existing services. To increase both customer penetration and the number of services used by its customers, Videotron uses integrated marketing techniques, including door-to-door solicitation, telemarketing, drive-to-store, media advertising, e-marketing, Short Message Service (SMS) and direct mail solicitation. Those initiatives are also strongly supported by business intelligence and artificial intelligence tools such as predictive churn models.

Maximizing customer satisfaction is a key element of Videotron's business strategy. In support of its commitment to customer satisfaction, Videotron continues to provide 24-hour customer service hotline seven days a week to its Videotron branded customers, in addition to its web-based customer service capabilities. All of its customer service representatives and technical support staff are trained to assist customers with all of its products and services, which in turn allows its customers to be served more efficiently and seamlessly. Videotron's customer care representatives continue to receive extensive training to perfect their product knowledge and skills, which contributes to customer retention and higher levels of customer service. Videotron utilizes surveys, focus groups and other research tools to assist marketing efforts and anticipate customer needs. To increase customer loyalty, Videotron also leverages strategic partnerships to offer exclusive promotions, privileges and contests which contribute to expanding its value proposition to its customers.

2.1.7 Programming

Videotron believes that offering a wide variety of programming is an important factor in influencing a customer's decision to subscribe to, and retain, its television and VOD services. Videotron devotes resources to obtaining access to a wide range of programming that Videotron believes will appeal to both existing and potential customers. Videotron relies on extensive market research, customer demographics and local programming preferences to determine its channel and package offerings. The Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission ("CRTC") currently regulates the distribution of foreign content in Canada and, as a result, Videotron is limited in its ability to provide such programming to its customers. Videotron obtains basic and premium programming from a number of suppliers, including all major Canadian media groups.

Videotron's programming contracts generally provide for a fixed term of up to five years and are subject to negotiated renewal. Programming tends to be made available to Videotron for a flat fee per customer. Videotron's overall programming costs have increased in recent years and may continue to increase due to factors including, but not limited to, increased costs to produce or purchase specialty programming, inflationary or negotiated annual increases, the concentration of broadcasters following acquisitions in the market, the increased competition from over-the-top (“OTT”) video service providers for content and the significant increased costs of sports content rights.

2.1.8 Competition

Videotron operates in a highly competitive business environment in the areas of price, product and service offerings and customer service. Due to ongoing technological developments, the distinctions among traditional platforms are fading rapidly. The Internet as well as mobile devices are becoming important broadcasting and distribution platforms. In addition, mobile operators are now offering wireless and fixed wireless Internet services and Videotron’s telephony service is also competing with Internet-based solutions. Given the highly regulated nature of the industry and the increasing speed of technological developments, the already competitive dynamics could increase further in the future, driven by existing competitors or new entrants.

- Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers (“ILECs”). In the province of Québec, both Bell and TELUS operate wireline networks that overlap with Videotron’s wireline footprint, with Bell accounting for this overlap in most regions. Bell and TELUS’ networks allow them to provide a full range of wireline services, including Internet access, television and home telephony services, leveraging the FTTH technology. Because fibre-optic cables can carry much more data than traditional copper telephone cables, especially over long distances, ILECs have built and continue to build fibre-optic network infrastructure further into their networks. This optical fibre deployment enables them to offer data transmission speeds in several Videotron service areas that are higher than those provided with traditional copper digital subscriber line technology.
- Mobile Network Operators. The Canadian wireless market is characterized by the presence of three national incumbent wireless carriers, Bell, TELUS and Rogers who operate under these main brands but also under their flanker brands: VirginPlus (Bell), Lucky Mobile (Bell), Koodo (TELUS), Public Mobile (TELUS), Fido (Rogers) and Chatr (Rogers). The range of services available varies depending on the province or region, with some providers offering a full range of telecommunications services and others providing only mobile services. These competitors have a longer operating history in mobile telephony, larger spectrum holdings as well as greater operational and financial resources than Videotron. The Canadian incumbents are deploying their 5G/5G+ networks, and these technologies are becoming the new industry standards.
- Fixed Wireless Access. While the provision of Internet service via wireless airwaves instead of cables, commonly known as fixed wireless access, has traditionally been used in rural areas where there is no or limited access to high-speed Internet. This technology allows some Canadian mobile network operators to use excess capacity on their mobile networks to offer a bundled service offering outside their wireline network footprint.
- MVNO. The CRTC’s decision ordering national incumbent wireless carriers, as well as SaskTel, to provide MVNO access services to regional wireless carriers for a period of seven years could have a significant impact on Videotron’s competitive environment, potentially introducing new MVNO competitors. For instance, Cogeco has launched wireless services in multiple regions across its footprint in Ontario and Québec.
- Third Party Internet Service Providers. Videotron competes against third-party Internet service providers making use of the wholesale third party Internet access (“TPIA”) service mandated by the CRTC to offer residential and commercial Internet access, as well as VoIP and video distribution services. Several TPIA providers are now part of large telecommunications companies, including Distributel and EBox for Bell, Altima and Start.ca for TELUS, Comwave for Rogers, and Oxo for Cogeco.
- Low Earth Orbit Satellite Technology. Satellite operators such as Xplore, Telesat and Starlink are expanding their existing high-speed Internet access capabilities with high-throughput satellites, targeting households in low population density and remote locations. Starlink, the low earth orbit market’s dominant player, continues to scale capacity and coverage, and Amazon’s impending entry with Amazon Leo is expected to further intensify competition. Collectively, these players are claiming future download speeds comparable to Videotron's low and medium download speeds. In addition to fixed satellite Internet services, certain operators may also have the technical capability to provide direct-to-device connectivity, enabling mobile devices to communicate directly with satellites without relying on traditional terrestrial cellular networks. However, the deployment of such services in Canada is governed by the Supplemental Mobile Coverage by Satellite ("SMCS") framework, which requires a commercial partnership between a satellite operator and a mobile network operator before satellite-supported mobile services may operate using terrestrial mobile spectrum. The SMCS framework also does not impose any obligation on mobile network operators to enable domestic roaming onto satellite-provided networks; offering such roaming remains at the discretion of the operators through commercial arrangements.

- Internet Video Streaming. The continuous technology improvement of the Internet, combined with higher download speeds and its affordability, favours the development and deployment of alternative technologies such as linear television, on-demand content and curated live events offered by OTT video service providers and OTT aggregators such as Netflix, Amazon Prime Video, Disney+, Apple TV+ and Roku Channel. While having a positive impact on the demand for Videotron's Internet access services, the growth of this model has been accompanied by certain trends away from traditional cable television services. In addition, competitive dynamics are further intensifying as the three national incumbent wireless carriers launch bundled OTT offers, creating new competitive models in which Videotron does not currently participate.
- Direct Broadcast Satellite ("DBS"). DBS is also a competitor to Videotron's television services. DBS delivers digital programming via signals sent directly to receiving dishes from medium and high-powered satellites, as opposed to cable delivery transmissions. DBS service can be received virtually anywhere in Canada through the installation of a small rooftop or side-mounted antenna.
- Grey and Black Market Providers. Providers of television signals continue to face competition from the use of access codes and equipment that enable the unauthorized decoding of encrypted satellite signals, from unauthorized access to Videotron's television signals (black market) and from the reception of foreign signals through subscriptions to foreign satellite television providers that are not lawful distributors in Canada (grey market). Providers of Internet services also face competition from unauthorized Wi-Fi service resellers within multi-unit residential buildings.
- Internet-Based Communication Service Providers. The increase in the number of communication options available using an Internet connection, including VoIP telephony, video conferencing, instant messaging, social networking services and email, has intensified the competitive environment in which Videotron operates its wireline telephony service.

2.2.5 Newspaper Publishing

2.2.5.1 Newspaper Operations

Quebecor operates its newspaper operations, namely Le Journal de Montréal and Le Journal de Québec through MediaQMI. Its daily newspapers disseminate, Monday through Saturday, information in traditional printed ways and through daily urban newspaper websites, namely www.journaldemontreal.com and www.journaldequebec.com, and through mobile applications.

Paid daily newspapers

Le Journal de Montréal and Le Journal de Québec are tabloids. They are mass-circulation newspapers that provide succinct and complete news coverage with an emphasis on local news, sports and entertainment. The tabloid format makes extensive use of colour, photographs and graphics. Each newspaper contains inserts that feature subjects of interest such as fashion, lifestyle and special sections.

According to corporate figures, the aggregate circulation of the Media segment's newspapers as of December 31, 2025 was approximately 800,000 copies per week in print and electronic formats. Their websites and mobile sites maintain 88 million page views each month on average and 3.2 million unique visitors per month (source: Comscore Multi-Platform, French Quebec, Average monthly unique visitors between January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2025, unduplicated).

- Le Journal de Montréal. Le Journal de Montréal is published six days a week and is distributed by Quebecor Media Network. The main competitors of Le Journal de Montréal are La Presse+, Le Devoir and The Montreal Gazette. Le Journal de Montréal's website is accessible at www.journaldemontreal.com.
- Le Journal de Québec. Le Journal de Québec is published six days a week and is distributed by Quebecor Media Network. The main competitor of Le Journal de Québec is Le Soleil. Le Journal de Québec's website is accessible at www.journaldequebec.com.

2.2.5.2 Competition

The newspaper industry is seeing secular changes, including the growing availability of free access to media, shifting readership habits, digital transferability, the advent of real-time information and secular changes in the advertising market, all of which affect the nature of competition in the newspaper industry. Competition increasingly comes not only from other newspapers (including other national, metropolitan (both paid and free) and suburban newspapers), magazines, television and radio broadcasting, direct marketing and solo and shared mail programs, but also from digital media platforms and large language models (LLMs).

2.2.5.3 Advertising, Circulation and Digital Revenues

Circulation sales are the largest source of revenue for Quebecor's newspaper operations and represented 37.0% of total revenues of its newspaper operations in 2025.

Advertising revenue is Quebecor's newspaper operations' second-largest source of revenue, representing 35.1% of its total revenues in 2025. Advertising rates are based upon the size of the market in which each newspaper operates, circulation, readership, demographic composition of the market and the availability of alternative advertising media.

The principal categories of advertising revenues in its newspaper operations are retail and national advertising. Most of its retail advertisers are furniture stores, finance and insurance companies, grocery stores, car dealers and manufacturers, as well as department stores and electronics stores.

Digital revenues represented 19.0% of total revenues for its newspaper operations in 2025. Digital revenues are generated from advertising on its websites and digital subscriptions to the e-editions of its newspapers. Revenues from digital products represent a potential growth opportunity for its newspaper operations.

2.2.5.4 Seasonality and Cyclicity

Quebecor's newspaper operations' operating results tend to follow a recurring seasonal pattern with higher advertising revenue in the spring and in the fall.

Quebecor's newspaper operations are cyclical in nature. Its operating results are sensitive to prevailing local, regional and national economic conditions because of its dependence on advertising sales for a substantial portion of its revenue.

2.2.6 Other Operations

2.2.6.1 Commercial Printing

Through its wholly owned subsidiary Quebecor Media Printing, Quebecor operates a printing facility located in Mirabel, Québec, where Le Journal de Montréal and Le Journal de Québec are printed.

It also offers third party commercial printing services, which provide it with an additional source of revenue that leverages existing equipment with excess capacity. In its third party commercial printing operations, it competes with other newspaper publishing companies as well as commercial printers. Its competitive strengths in this area include its modern equipment, and its ability to price projects on a variable cost basis, as its core newspaper business covers overhead expenses.

2.2.6.2 Distribution of Periodicals in Québec

Through Distributions Dynamiques, a division of Quebecor Media Network, Quebecor delivers magazines and newspapers through a network that serves more than 6,200 points of sale. Its home delivery service brings many Québec and Canadian dailies, including Le Journal de Montréal and Le Journal de Québec, to more than 83,000 homes six days a week.

2.2.6.3 Out-of-Home Advertising

Quebecor is involved in out-of-home advertising through the installation, maintenance and management of out-of-home advertisement, including on transit and bus shelters. In relation thereto, it entered into a 20-year agreement with Société de transport de Montréal (STM), a 20-year agreement and a 15-year agreement with Société de transport de Laval (STL), a 10-year agreement with Société de transport de Lévis (STLévis), a 10-year agreement with Société de transport de Sherbrooke (STS) and a 10-year agreement with Réseau de transport de Longueuil (RTL).

Since September 2023, Quebecor has diversified its out-of-home advertising offering to encompass digital taxi top screens, in the Montreal region, through a 10-year agreement with 9397-8443 Québec inc. doing business as Taxelco.

In October 2024, Quebecor completed the acquisition of the Canada-wide out-of-home advertising business of Media Group Inc. ("NEO-OOH"), adding almost 3,000 advertising faces across more than 500 sites in shopping centres, fitness centres, service centres, and convenience stores, covering 250 communities in nine Canadian provinces.

This acquisition allows Quebecor to offer its advertising partners a total of over 17,000 advertising faces, further solidifying its position as a leader in Canada's out-of-home advertising industry.

2.2.6.4 Production of Digital Content

Through its wholly owned subsidiary NumériQ, Quebecor brings together the digital strategy, development and content production assets harnessed to create digital platforms and content for its various platforms.

NumériQ also operates a number of other digital brands, including Le Guide de l'auto, Le sac de chips, Pèse sur Start, Silo 57 and 24 Heures.ca. Moreover, NumériQ operates QUB radio, an online and mobile audio platform with a live radio stream and a library of podcasts. QUB radio is also broadcast as a television specialty channel and on FM band at 99.5 FM in Montreal, under a partnership with the Leclerc Communications group, which owns the station.

NumériQ designs, develops and operates the applications and websites of the Media segment. Quebecor's applications and websites log a combined total of nearly 6.4 million unique visitors per month in Canada (source: Comscore Canada, average monthly unique visitors, January 1 to December 31, 2025).

2.3 SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Quebecor's activities in the Sports and Entertainment segment consist primarily of the production, promotion and management of live shows and of various sporting, cultural and corporate events, the operation of Les Remparts de Québec, a QMJHL hockey team, the operation and management of the Videotron Centre and the Théâtre Capitole, as well as book publishing and distribution and music publishing and production.

2.3.1 Videotron Centre

The Videotron Centre is an arena located in Québec City that has 18,400 seats and is home to the Remparts de Québec as well as the host of a variety of events and shows featuring local and international artists. Through a 25-year agreement entered into with Québec City, Quebecor was granted both the management and naming rights through 2040. Quebecor leases the Videotron Centre and generates revenues through the sale of advertisement and sponsorship opportunities as well as through the sale of food and beverages during the events and shows.

The Sports and Entertainment segment has entered into strategic partnerships for the operation of the Videotron Centre with global market leaders in concert promotion and Ticketmaster's ticketing service. Finally, the Sports and Entertainment segment has entered into strategic partnerships with Levy Restaurants, with an emphasis on offering a world-class culinary experience at the Videotron Centre through a local food and beverage program, with Labatt Breweries of Canada as the Videotron Centre's official beer supplier and with Alex Coulombe ltée (the local Pepsi Co distributor) as the Videotron Centre's official supplier of soft drinks, sparkling water and isotonic sports drinks.

2.3.2 Théâtre Capitole

The Sports and Entertainment segment owns the Théâtre Capitole in the heart of Québec City's entertainment district. The theatre is well known in Québec and is one of the busiest in the region with over 175 events per year. In 2025, the Théâtre Capitole presented a vast array of performers, singer-songwriter-performers as well as musicals, including "We Will Rock You" and "Chicago".

2.3.3 Management of Casino Halls

Quebecor Sports and Entertainment manages the multipurpose hall Cabaret du Casino de Montréal, the largest casino in Canada, and the Theatre du Casino du Lac-Leamy.

2.3.4 QMJHL Hockey Team

Quebecor owns one QMJHL franchise, namely Les Remparts de Québec. On June 30, 2023, Quebecor sold a 33.3% stake in the Armada de Blainville-Boisbriand franchise to local interests, and since then, has retained a minority participation of 40%.

2.3.5 Event Production and Management and Live-Event Production

Through its subsidiary Gestev, a sports and cultural events manager, site manager and producer, Quebecor produces or has, in the past, produced numerous high-profile events such as the Red Bull Crashed Ice (urban extreme ice skating race), Vélirium (International Mountain Bike Festival and UCI World Cup), Ski Tour (FIS Cross-Country World Cup), the Jamboree (including the FIS Snowboard and Freestyle Skiing World Cups), PBR Major Event (Professional Bull Rider event), FIVB Beach Volley World Finals, the Marathon de Québec (a 3-day running event), and the musical festivals "Cigale", "Festivent" and "Igloofest" (a winter outdoor electronic music event). Quebecor also produces, on an annual basis, approximately 200 corporate, private and public events. Quebecor also managed, up to the end of 2025, the site of the Baie de Beauport, a beach in Québec City.

2.3.6 Book Distribution and Publishing

Quebecor is also involved in book publishing and distribution through academic publisher CEC Publishing, 18 general literature publishers under the Sogides umbrella, and Messageries A.D.P. Inc. (“Messageries ADP”). Through Sogides and the academic publisher CEC Publishing, Quebecor is involved in French-language book publishing and it forms one of the Province of Québec’s largest book publishing groups. In 2025, Quebecor published or reissued a total of 298 titles in paper format and 228 titles in digital format.

As of December 31, 2025, through Messageries ADP, its book distribution company, Quebecor is the exclusive distributor for more than 300 Québec and European French-language publishers. It distributes French-language books to approximately 2,200 retail outlets in Canada. In addition, Messageries ADP distributes approximately 12,000 digital books. It is Canada’s largest distributor of French books with approximately 59 000 titles available for sale.

2.3.7 Music

Through its subsidiaries Select Music and Les Disques Audiogramme Inc. (“Audiogram”), Quebecor creates and produces music recordings, videos and live performances. Audiogram is also a recognized music publisher that not only acts as a publisher but also offers music publishing administration services.

Although their rosters are predominantly French-speaking, the artists represented by Select Music and Audiogram enjoy strong visibility not only in Québec, but also on the international stage.

2.3.8 Competition

The Videotron Centre competes with several major venues, including the Bell Centre in Montréal, Place Bell in Laval, and the Canadian Tire Center in Ottawa, as well as other venues located within a 700-kilometre radius, such as those in Boston, Kingston, and Moncton. These venues compete for a limited number of tour dates based on artists’ touring schedules. Over a two-week period in the summer, the Festival d’été de Québec is also a significant competitor, offering high-quality shows at competitive prices.

The junior hockey team Les Remparts de Québec faces no direct competitors in the hockey entertainment sector within the Québec City region.

Gestev, which manages sports and cultural events, is a leading player in the Québec City area; however, it operates in a highly fragmented market characterized by numerous competitors.

In the publishing and distribution of French-language books, Sogides, Messageries ADP and CEC Publishing compete with local companies of comparable or smaller size, as well as certain major French publishing houses.

The music industry is largely dominated by three major players, Universal Music, Warner Music and Sony Music, who together hold a significant majority of the Canadian market share and integrate both production and distribution activities. However, the Québec music market is unique, as its predominantly French-speaking population fosters the emergence of strong local talent and its own popular artists.

The Corporation cannot predict the outcome of current or future negotiations related to labour disputes, nor guarantee that it will not experience future work stoppages, strikes or other forms of union protest pending the outcome of any current or future negotiations.

If its unionized workers engage in a strike or any other form of work stoppage, the Corporation could experience a significant disruption to its operations, damage to its property and/or interruption to its services, which could adversely affect its business, assets, financial position, results of operations and reputation. Even if the Corporation does not experience strikes or other forms of labour protests, the outcome of labour negotiations could adversely affect its business and results of operations. Such could be the case if current or future labour negotiations or contracts were to further restrict its ability to maximize the efficiency of its operations. In addition, the Corporation's ability to make short-term adjustments to control compensation and benefits costs is limited by the terms of its collective bargaining agreements.

2.6 ENVIRONMENT

Some of the Corporation's operations are subject to Canadian, provincial and municipal laws and regulations concerning, among other things, emissions to the air, water and sewer discharge, handling and disposal of hazardous materials, the recycling of waste, the soil remediation of contaminated sites, or otherwise relating to the protection of the environment. Laws and regulations relating to workplace safety and worker health, which, among other things, regulate employee exposure to hazardous substances in the workplace, also govern its operations.

Compliance with these laws has not had, and management does not expect it to have, a material effect upon its capital expenditures, net income or competitive position. Environmental laws and regulations and the interpretation of such laws and regulations, however, have changed rapidly in recent years and may continue to do so in the future. The Corporation has monitored the changes closely and has modified its practices where necessary or appropriate.

The Corporation's past and current properties, as well as areas surrounding those properties, particularly those in areas of long-term industrial use, may have had historic uses, or may have current uses, in the case of surrounding properties, which may affect its properties and require further study or remedial measures. As part of its Film Production and Audiovisual Services Business, Quebecor owns certain studios and vacant lots, some of which are located on a former landfill, which produces landfill gas. Where applicable, the landfill gas is managed in accordance with provincial regulations.

The Corporation is not currently conducting or planning any material study or significant remedial measure. Furthermore, the Corporation cannot provide assurance that all environmental liabilities have been determined, that any prior owner of its properties did not create a material environmental condition not known to it, that a material environmental condition does not otherwise exist as to any such property, or that expenditure will not be required to deal with known or unknown contamination.

The Corporation is presently engaged in an assessment and strategic management of its climate risks. Acknowledging the urgency of addressing climate change challenges, the Corporation is actively evaluating potential impacts and opportunities on its operations from extreme weather events, regulatory shifts, market changes, and the broader transition toward a low-carbon economy. Notably, the Corporation manages its greenhouse gas emissions by adopting energy saving technologies, electrifying its vehicle fleet, and optimizing operations to reduce consumption. The Corporation is also increasing the resiliency of its network by adding network redundancies, modifying or adopting new construction standards and by collaborating with Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada ("ISED"). The Corporation has agreed to a Memorandum of Understanding on Telecommunications Reliability with ISED with the aim to ensure the reliability and resiliency of communications networks during natural disasters, network failures and other impactful emergencies. The Corporation is also fully compliant with the CRTC interim's service outage reporting measure, which requires all Canadian carriers to provide notification of every major service outage and submit post-outage reports.

Finally, the Corporation continues to operate programs or support initiatives aimed at reducing its environmental impact, including revi, an electronics recycling program available to Quebec residents; Gestevert, a program designed to reduce the impact of live events; and Rolling Green, a program that provides the audiovisual production industry with tools to make its activities more sustainable.

8.1 CAPITAL STRUCTURE

Quebecor's authorized share capital was modified by a certificate of amendment dated September 4, 1986, redesignating the Common Shares as Class A Shares carrying ten votes per share and creating Class B Shares carrying one vote per share. Its Class B Shares are "restricted securities" (within the meaning of the relevant Canadian regulations respecting securities) in that they do not carry equal voting rights to those attached to the Class A Shares. In the aggregate, all of the voting rights attached to the Class B Shares represented, as at March 26, 2026, 16.80% of the total voting rights attached to all of its issued and outstanding voting securities.

Quebecor's Articles provide that if, at any time, the "Péladeau Group or an Acceptable Successor" (as defined in the Articles of Quebecor) does not own, directly or indirectly, a number of Class A Shares equal to at least 40% of all the Class A Shares outstanding or does not own, directly or indirectly, at least 32,000,000 Class A Shares (such number having been adjusted upwards to reflect stock splits), then the Class A Shares will carry one vote per share at all times thereafter and all of its directors will be elected by the holders of the Class A Shares and the Class B Shares voting together as a single class.

Quebecor's Articles further provide that if a takeover bid to purchase Class A Shares is made to the holders of Class A Shares and is not made at the same time and on the same terms and conditions to the holders of Class B Shares, each Class B Share will become convertible, at the holder's option, as of the date the takeover bid is made, into one Class A Share, for the sole purpose of allowing the holder to accept the takeover bid. However, such right of conversion will be deemed not to come into force if the "Péladeau Group or an Acceptable Successor" owns at that time a sufficient number of shares of any class to be able to exercise more than 50% of the votes attached to all of its shares then carrying voting rights and does not accept the takeover bid before it expires. Moreover, the right of conversion will be deemed not to come into force if the takeover bid is withdrawn by the offeror.

Quebecor's Articles contain a definition of an offer giving rise to the right of conversion, provide for procedures to be followed in order to exercise such right and stipulate that, at the time such an offer is made, Quebecor or the transfer agent of the Class B Shares will communicate in writing with the holders of Class B Shares in order to provide them with full particulars of the manner in which their right of conversion may be exercised.

Quebecor's Articles provide that, on liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation or any other distribution of its assets among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, all the assets of the Corporation available for payment or distribution to the holders of Class A Shares and of Class B Shares, will be paid or distributed equally, on a one-for-one basis, to the holders of Class A Shares and of Class B Shares.

8.2 AUTHORIZED SHARE CAPITAL

Quebecor's authorized share capital consists of the following classes of shares:

- an unlimited number of Class A Shares (Multiple Voting) with voting rights of 10 votes per share, convertible at any time into Class B Shares (Subordinate Voting), on a one-for-one basis; and
- an unlimited number of Class B Shares (Subordinate Voting) with voting rights of one vote per share convertible into Class A Shares on a one-for-one basis only if a takeover bid for the Class A Shares is made without an offer being made concurrently and on the same terms and conditions for the Class B Shares and subject to other conditions provided for in Quebecor's Articles.

Holders of Class B Shares are entitled to elect 25% of the members of the Board, and holders of Class A Shares are entitled to elect the remaining members of the Board.

8.3 ISSUED AND OUTSTANDING SHARE CAPITAL

As at March 26, 2026, 74,742,622 Class A Shares and 150,926,526 Class B Shares were issued and outstanding.

8.4 DIVIDENDS

Each Class A Share and each Class B Share is entitled to receive dividends as determined by the Board, in an identical amount, on the same date and in the same form as if the Class A Shares and Class B Shares formed a single class of shares.

Declaration and payment of dividends are the responsibility of the Board, which takes into consideration the Corporation's financial situation and its cash-flow strategy. In addition, in accordance with the credit agreements and indentures governing the debt instruments of some of the Corporation's subsidiaries, these subsidiaries are subject to certain restrictions including the maintenance of certain financial ratios that may limit the amount of distribution that they can declare and pay to the Corporation, hence potentially limiting the amount of cash available to the Corporation and the amount of dividends that the Corporation can declare and pay.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, Quebecor declared and paid quarterly dividends in the annual aggregate amount of $1.40 per share on its Class A Shares and Class B Shares. For the years ended December 31, 2024, and 2023, Quebecor declared and paid quarterly dividends in the annual aggregate respective amount of $1.30 and $1.20 per share on its Class A Shares and Class B Shares.

The investors who wish to do so may view such documents under TVA Group's profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

The Canadian Securities Administrators have exempted Quebecor from the obligation to file on its SEDAR+ profile the material contracts of TVA Group that would otherwise be material contracts for it. The material contracts of TVA Group may be viewed under its profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

10.1 MATERIAL CONTRACTS OF QUEBECOR MEDIA

The following contracts entered into by Quebecor Media are: (i) material contracts other than contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, and (ii) material contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business that are required to be disclosed under Regulation 51-102 respecting Continuous Disclosure Obligations ("Regulation 51-102"), and that are still in effect:

Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of June 14, 2013, as amended, by and among Quebecor Media, as borrower, the financial institutions party thereto from time to time, as lenders, and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent.

Quebecor Media's senior secured credit facilities currently provide for a $300,000,000 revolving credit facility ("Revolving Facility") that matures on July 15, 2025 and a US$350,000,000 term credit facility ("Facility B") which was reduced to zero and cancelled following its repayment in full on July 15, 2019. Quebecor Media's senior secured credit facilities also provide it with the ability to borrow up to an additional amount of $800,000,000 (minus the equivalent amount in Canadian dollars of Facility B as of August 1, 2013) under an uncommitted incremental facility (or increase to the Revolving Facility or Facility B), subject to absence of default and lenders being willing to fund the incremental amount. Quebecor Media may draw letters of credit under its Revolving Facility. The proceeds of its senior secured credit facilities may be used for its general corporate purposes.

Borrowings under the Revolving Facility bear interest at, as applicable, the Canadian prime rate, the U.S. prime rate, the Term Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("Term SOFR"), Term CORRA or Daily compounded CORRA, plus agreed pricing margins. Specified commitment fees or drawing fees may also be payable.

Borrowings under the Revolving Facility are repayable in full on July 15, 2025.

Borrowings under the senior secured credit facilities and under eligible derivative instruments are secured by a first-ranking hypothec and security agreement (subject to certain permitted encumbrances) on all of Quebecor Media's movable property and first-ranking pledges of all of the shares (subject to certain permitted encumbrances) of Videotron.

The senior secured credit facilities contain customary covenants that restrict and limit Quebecor Media's ability to, among other things, enter into merger or amalgamation transactions, grant encumbrances, sell assets, pay dividends or make other distributions, incur indebtedness and enter into related party transactions. In addition, the senior secured credit facilities contain customary financial covenants solely for the benefit of lenders under the Revolving Facility. The senior secured credit facilities contain customary events of default, including the non-payment of principal or interest, the breach of any financial covenant, the failure to perform or observe any other covenant, certain bankruptcy events relating to Quebecor Media and its material subsidiaries (including Videotron), and the occurrence of a change of control.

On April 15, 2025, Quebecor Media terminated its Revolving Facility.

As of January 28, 2026, being the date of the most recent amendment and restatement of Videotron's Credit Agreement, there were no subsidiaries of Videotron guaranteeing the obligations under its Credit Agreement.

Videotron's Credit Agreement contains customary covenants that restrict and limit the ability of Videotron and the members of the VL Group (as defined in the credit agreement to mean Videotron and all of its wholly owned subsidiaries) to, among other things, enter into merger or amalgamation transactions or liquidate or dissolve, grant encumbrances, sell assets, pay dividends or make other distributions, issue shares of capital stock, incur indebtedness and enter into related party transactions. In addition, Videotron's Credit Agreement contains customary financial covenants and customary events of default including the non-payment of principal or interest, the breach of any financial covenant, the failure to perform or observe any other covenant, certain bankruptcy events relating to Videotron or any member of the VL Group (other than an Immaterial Subsidiary, as defined in the credit agreement), and the occurrence of a change of control. On January 28, 2026, after the end of the period covered by this annual information form, each of the guarantors under Videotron's Credit Agreement and indentures were simultaneously released as guarantors.

TVA Productions Inc. and TVA Productions II Inc. produced 873 hours of original programming during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, consisting primarily of service broadcasts. Those productions are produced to air on TVA Network's stations and on TVA+.

2.1.4. SOURCES OF REVENUE

Private conventional television stations derive most of their revenues from the sale of integrated and diversified advertising services. The rates set by stations depend largely on the market share, on the demographic and socio-economic make-up of the audience and on the availability of other media or other promotional vehicles.

Advertising services on the TVA Network, i.e. its CFTM-TV (Montréal) station, as well as regional and affiliated stations and specialty services are sold by sales representatives at Quebecor Expertise Media (also known as Quebecor Media Sales).

For the year ended December 31, 2025, 74% of specialty channel revenues were derived from subscription charges paid by broadcasting distribution undertakings ("BDU"), while 26% were derived mainly from advertising revenues.

The Broadcasting segment of the Corporation experiences seasonality due to, among other factors, seasonal advertising patterns and people's viewing and listening habits. As the Corporation depends on the sale of advertising for a significant portion of its revenue, operating results are also sensitive to prevailing economic conditions, including changes in local, regional and national economic conditions, particularly as they may affect advertising expenditures.

2.1.5. LICENCES AND REGULATION

Television stations and discretionary services (also called specialty services) are all operated under licences issued by the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission ("CRTC"). These activities are subject to the requirements and regulations of the Broadcasting Act (Canada), in particular the Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987 and the Discretionary Services Regulations, 2017, as well as to CRTC policies and decisions published from time to time, and to the terms, conditions and expectations set out in the licence pertaining to each station or discretionary service. These licences are issued for a fixed term and, before their expiry, the Corporation must apply to the CRTC for their renewal. Renewals are generally granted to corporations that have complied with the terms and conditions of their licences. The acquisition or disposition of television broadcasting activities also requires regulatory approval. As of the date hereof, the CRTC has not informed the Corporation of any breach of the terms and conditions of its various licences and the Corporation has no reason to believe that its licences will not be renewed upon their expiry.

Ownership and Control of Canadian Broadcast Undertakings

The Canadian government has directed the CRTC not to issue, amend or renew a broadcasting license to an applicant that is a non-Canadian. "Canadian", a defined term in the Direction to the CRTC (Ineligibility of Non-Canadians) (the "Direction to the CRTC") means, among other things, a citizen or a permanent resident of Canada or a qualified corporation. A qualified corporation is one incorporated or continued in Canada, of which the chief executive officer and not less than 80% of the directors are Canadians, and not less than 80% of the issued and outstanding voting shares and not less than 80% of the votes are beneficially owned and controlled, directly or indirectly, by Canadians.

In addition to the above requirements, Canadians must beneficially own and control, directly or indirectly, not less than 66.6% of the issued and outstanding voting shares and not less than 66.6% of the votes of the parent corporation that controls the subsidiary, and neither the parent corporation nor its directors may exercise control or influence over any programming decisions of the subsidiary if Canadians beneficially own and control less than 80% of the issued and outstanding shares and votes of the parent corporation, if the chief executive officer of the parent corporation is a non-Canadian or if less than 80% of the parent corporation's directors are Canadians. There are no specific restrictions on the number of non-voting shares which may be owned by non-Canadians. Finally, an applicant seeking to acquire, amend or renew a broadcasting licence must not otherwise be controlled in fact by non-Canadians, a question of fact which may be determined by the CRTC at its discretion. "Control" is defined broadly to mean control in any manner that results in control in fact, whether directly through the ownership of securities or indirectly through a trust, agreement or arrangement, of the ownership of a corporation or otherwise. TVA is a qualified Canadian corporation.

Regulations made under the Broadcasting Act (Canada) require the prior approval of the CRTC for any transaction that directly or indirectly results in a change in effective control of the licensee of a television programming undertaking (such as a conventional television station, a discretionary programming service), or the acquisition of a voting interest above certain specified thresholds.

Diversity of Voices

The CRTC's Broadcasting Public Notice CRTC 2008-4, entitled "Diversity of Voices," sets forth the CRTC's policies with respect to cross-media ownership; the common ownership of television services, including discretionary services; the common ownership of BDUs; and the common ownership of over-the-air television and radio undertakings. Pursuant to these policies, the CRTC will generally permit ownership by one person of no more than one conventional television station in one language in a given market. The CRTC, as a general rule, will not approve applications for a change in the effective control of broadcasting undertakings that would result in the ownership or control, by one person, of a local radio station, a local television station and a local newspaper serving the same market. The CRTC, as a general rule, will not approve applications for a change in effective control that would result in the control, by one person, of a dominant position in the delivery of television services to Canadians that would impact on the diversity of programming available to television audiences.

Jurisdiction Over Canadian Broadcast Undertakings

TVA's broadcasting activities are subject to the Broadcasting Act (Canada) and regulations made under the Broadcasting Act (Canada) that empower the CRTC, subject to directions from the Governor in Council, to regulate and supervise all aspects of the Canadian broadcasting system in order to implement the policy set out in the Broadcasting Act (Canada). Certain of TVA's undertakings are also subject to the Radiocommunication Act (Canada), which empowers Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada to establish and administer the technical standards that networks and transmitters must comply with, namely, maintaining the technical quality of signals.

The CRTC has, among other things, the power under the Broadcasting Act (Canada) and regulations promulgated thereunder to issue, subject to appropriate conditions, amend, renew, suspend and revoke broadcasting licences, approve certain changes in corporate ownership and control, and establish and oversee compliance with regulations and policies concerning broadcasting, including various programming and distribution requirements, subject to certain directions from the Governor in Council.

Broadcasting Licence Fees

With the adoption of Bill C-11 amending the Broadcasting Act (the "Act") on April 27, 2023, Part II licence fees payable by broadcasting companies whose licensed activities exceeded a certain threshold were abolished. As a result, broadcast licensees are now only required to pay the CRTC's annual regulatory fee (Part I). The Act also extends the pool of payers to all broadcasting undertakings, including online undertakings. To implement these changes, on March 21, 2024, the CRTC issued Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2024-65 concerning the new Broadcasting Fees Regulation ("Regulation"). The Regulation, which came into force on April 1, 2024, provides for the calculation and payment of fees to be made at the level of the ownership group, and introduced the concept of a double deductible (a deductible of $25,000,000 on the group's total revenues, excluding revenues from undertakings with less than $2,000,000 in annual revenues).

Regulation of Online Broadcasting Undertakings

Following the coming into force of the amended Act, the CRTC began implementing measures to modernize its regulations, including the development of a regulatory framework for online broadcasting undertakings. On September 29, 2023, the CRTC issued its first two decisions on the matter. In Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2023-329 and Broadcasting Order CRTC 2023-330, the CRTC established a registration requirement for online undertakings, while in Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2023-331 and Broadcasting Order CRTC 2023-332, it set out the initial service conditions applicable to these online undertakings. Following these decisions, five of TVA's online undertakings were registered with the CRTC in November 2023.

Then, on June 24, 2024, the CRTC issued Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2024-121, in which it required online undertakings that are not affiliated with a traditional Canadian broadcasting group and whose annual revenues in Canada exceed $25,000,000 to contribute 5% of their revenues to the broadcasting system. Given their affiliation with the TVA Group/Quebecor Media broadcasting group, TVA Group's online undertakings are not subject to such an obligation. It should be noted that this latest CRTC policy is currently being challenged before the Federal Court of Appeal by major foreign online undertakings, which obtained a stay of the contribution requirement in December 2024, pending a decision (Amazon.com.ca ULC v. Attorney General of Canada, 2024 FCA 217).

Copyright Royalty Payment Obligations

TVA has the obligations to pay copyright royalties set by Tariffs of the Copyright Board of Canada (the "Copyright Board"). The Copyright Board establishes the royalties to be paid for the use of certain copyright tariff royalties that Canadian broadcasting undertakings, including cable, television and discretionary services, pay to copyright management companies, i.e. organizations that administers the rights of a large number of copyright owners. Tariffs certified by the Copyright Board are generally applicable until a public process is held and a decision of the Copyright Board is rendered for a renewed tariff. Renewed tariffs are often applicable retroactively.

The Government of Canada may from time to time make amendments to the Copyright Act to implement Canada's international treaty obligations and for other purposes. Any such amendments could result in TVA being required to pay additional tariff royalties.

Canadian Broadcast Programming (Television Stations and Discretionary Services)

Programming of Canadian Content

CRTC regulations require licensees of television stations to maintain a specified percentage of Canadian content in their programming. A private television station licensee is required to devote not less than 50% of the evening broadcast period (6:00 p.m. to midnight) to the broadcast of Canadian programs. Discretionary services also have to maintain a specified percentage of Canadian content in their programming which is generally set forth in the conditions of their respective licences.

In Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2015-86 issued on March 12, 2015, the CRTC eliminated with immediate effect the genre exclusivity policy and related protections for all English- and French-language discretionary services including Canadian video-on-demand services. As an exception to the general rule of elimination of genre protections, the CRTC has retained the conditions of licence relating to the nature of service for those services that benefit from a mandatory distribution, for national news services and for sports services.

TVA's Conditions of Licence

Conventional television stations and discretionary services of TVA (excluding LCN and TVA Sports) are subject to certain conditions including in particular:

- The obligation to devote, in each broadcast year, to the acquisition of or investment in Canadian programming at least 45% of the previous year's gross revenues of the undertaking, with at least 75% of expenditure devoted to original French-language programs.
- The obligation to devote, in each broadcast year, to the acquisition of or investment in programs of national interest at least 15% of the previous year's gross revenues of the undertaking. At least 75% of these expenditures must be made to an independent production company.

On November 15, 2024, the CRTC issued Notice of Consultation CRTC 2024-288 to obtain stakeholders' comments on modernizing the definition of "Canadian programming" and supporting the creation and distribution of Canadian programming by updating spending obligations for Canadian and national interest programming and funding news content. The consultation led to a public hearing held from May 14 to May 27, 2025.

Following this consultation, the CRTC issued Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2025-299 on November 18, 2025. In this policy, the CRTC amended the criteria for programs to qualify and be certified as Canadian programs, by expanding the range of key creative positions that may be held by Canadians to attain the minimum required score, and by imposing requirements related to the ownership of intellectual property rights. This revised definition could therefore encompass more foreign productions filmed in Canada, provided that they are co-produced with Canadian entities that retain certain copyright in order to meet the criteria.

A second decision regarding the modernization of the regulatory framework for contributions to the broadcasting system is expected in the first quarter of 2026.

Furthermore, TVA shall devote 5% of the previous year's gross revenues of its television stations in locally reflective news. TVA Montréal shall broadcast at least 25 hours of local programming each week and at least 6 hours of locally reflective news each week. As for TVA Québec, the local programming shall be of 16 hours per week, of which 9 hours of programming specifically reflects the Québec City region, including 5 hours and 30 minutes of news bulletins produced in Québec City, and 3 hours and 30 minutes of locally reflective news. TVA's other television stations shall broadcast 5 hours of local programming each week of which 2 hours and 30 minutes of locally reflective news.

The licensing conditions in effect for the period from September 1, 2017 to August 31, 2022 were first administratively renewed, without changes, on July 4, 2022, for an additional two-year period, from September 1, 2022 to August 31, 2024, and then again on August 8, 2023, for a further two-year period from September 1, 2024 to August 31, 2026.

Also, in Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2023-306 published on September 5, 2023, the CRTC removed the advertising time limit of 12 minutes per clock hour for all discretionary services. The condition relating to this obligation in the licences of TVA's discretionary services, including LCN and TVA Sports, is therefore no longer applicable.

Finally, on January 9, 2025, the CRTC published Broadcasting Notice of Consultation CRTC 2025-2 regarding the industry structural relationships and dynamics between small, medium and large broadcasters, television service providers and online streaming services. The CRTC's objectives are to establish a sustainable model for the provision and discoverability of diverse Canadian and Aboriginal content, and to establish a fair and competitive broadcasting marketplace among broadcasting undertakings. The consultation led to a public hearing held from June 18 to July 4, 2025.

Policy Framework for Local and Community Television

On June 15, 2016, the CRTC published a new Policy framework for local and community television. This policy sets out regulatory measures to ensure that Canadians continue to have access to local programming that reflects their needs and interests. This includes the broadcast of high-quality local news as well as the broadcast of community programming through which Canadians can express themselves. To help ensure that local television stations have the financial resources to continue providing high-quality local news and information and that there is no erosion of local news in the various markets, the CRTC rebalanced the resources already present in the broadcasting system by taking the following steps:

- BDUs are allowed to devote part of their local expression contribution to the production of local news on local television stations;
- direct-to-home satellite provider BDUs are allowed to devote part of their contribution to Canadian programming to the production of local news on local television stations; and
- financial support is available to independent local television stations (i.e. stations that are not part of large vertically integrated groups) through the Independent Local News Fund. All licensed BDUs are required to contribute to the fund.

2.1.6. COMPETITION, VIEWING AUDIENCES AND TELEVISION MARKET SHARE

The Broadcasting segment competes directly with all other advertising media. The distribution of advertising dollars among these various media is determined by several factors, among them the economic climate, advertiser's preferences and interest in the product offered.

The Broadcasting segment in Québec has to deal with a very competitive environment due to the multiplication of content offering especially for unregulated subscription video-on-demand services such as Netflix, Amazon and Disney+, which have access to international capital to finance their exclusive original content, in addition to offering ad-supported subscription services, which reduce the advertising revenues available to the Corporation and exert downward pressure on rates. Moreover, publicly owned stations benefit from strong financial support from governments, while also maintaining access to the advertising market and funding available for Canadian programming. In addition to the larger number of television channels, viewers are increasingly solicited by the Internet and its peripheral services. The negative impact associated with this competition is felt mainly on viewing hours, which are in decline, affecting traditional advertising revenues. The widespread fragmentation of audiences has prompted many advertisers to review their media placement strategies and to allocate a significant portion of their advertising budget to international competitors present primarily on digital media.

The quality of its programming, the great popularity of its shows, the reputation for its news and information services and the use of new broadcasting platforms are all factors that help the Corporation maintain its audience ratings and its significant share of the advertising market. For the year 2025, TVA Network remained in the lead with a 22.5% market share, more than the combined market share of its two main over-the-air competitors.

2.2. FILM PRODUCTION & AUDIOVISUAL SERVICES

The Corporation, especially through MELS, provides top-quality services for the film and television industries, including complete soundstage and equipment rental services, mobile and post-production services, and media accessibility services. It also offers asset management for distribution and broadcasting via film, television, internet and mobile telephony networks, allowing one-stop shopping in the film and television industries. Since October 2020, MELS offers the rental of a virtual stage with an LED wall. This virtual stage is an integrated production platform that allows MELS to offer a complete virtual production solution.

This segment's operations are heavily dependent on the availability of soundstages and equipment, and on the ability to meet international and local producers' postproduction needs in accordance with shooting schedules.

2.2.1. SOUNDSTAGE, MOBILE AND EQUIPMENT RENTAL SERVICES

The Corporation offers for rent 20 purpose-built stages of approximately 230,000 square feet in Montreal, St Hubert and Québec, cameras, mobile and lighting as well as the management and production of deliverables for distribution and broadcast via film, television, Internet and mobile telephony networks. The Corporation also provides on-set technical services. The facilities are used for both local and foreign film and television productions, including U.S. blockbusters.

2.2.2. POSTPRODUCTION

Postproduction – Digital intermediate and video

The Corporation offers editing services, digital intermediate, grading and colour correction, digital cinema, photochemical laboratory, image restoration and other related services.

Postproduction – Audio

The Corporation offers sound design services, sound effects, dubbing as well as mixing for television, cinema, advertising or video games.

2.2.3. MEDIA ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Through Mels Dubbing Inc., the Corporation provides voice-over services for the French-language channels of the Corporation for the most part. It also provides its clients with closed captioning for the hearing impaired and described video.

2.2.4. DISTRIBUTION

The Corporation also offers access to a private streaming platform VSR (Virtual Screening Room), as well as distribution, encoding for different platforms and archiving services.

2.2.5. SOURCES OF REVENUE

This segment's main sources of revenue are soundstage, mobile and equipment rental, postproduction services and media accessibility services. Shooting stage, mobile and equipment rental services account for 48% of the segment's total revenues, 18% of which coming from international clients over the past year. The postproduction services represent 25% of the total revenues of the segment and mainly service local clients. Media accessibility services account for 20% of the segment's total revenues.

2.2.6. CUSTOMERS

The Film Production & Audiovisual Services segment's primary customers are major motion picture studios, third-party filmmakers, as well as independent Québec producers of television series and programs. Historically, a significant percentage of the Film Production & Audiovisual Services segment's revenues came from a limited number of customers, several of whom are foreign customers, whose loyalty to Canada may be tested when presented with more favourable production environments outside Canada. The Corporation still expects that a high percentage of the Film Production & Audiovisual Services segment's revenues for the foreseeable future will continue to come from a relatively small number of customers. In general, the Corporation does not have long-term or exclusive service agreements with its Film Production & Audiovisual Services segment's customers. Customer retention is based on customer satisfaction with regard to reliability, timeliness, quality and price.

2.2.7. REGULATION

Canada is a favourable country for television and film production because of its tax incentive program. The Canadian and provincial governments currently provide grants and incentives to attract foreign producers and support domestic film and television production. Many of the major studios and other key customers of the Film Production & Audiovisual Services segment, as well as content producers for the Broadcasting and the Production & Distribution segments, finance a portion of their production budgets through Canadian governmental programs, including federal and provincial tax credits.

To maintain our market attractiveness, our partners must be able to benefit from attractive incentives comparable to those offered elsewhere in Canada and internationally. To this end, the Corporation believes that the Québec government must extend the Refundable Tax Credit for Film or Television Production Services to audiovisual variety programs. It must also harmonize the rules governing the local production of such programs with those of the federal government, taking into consideration the importance that other jurisdictions place on this major economic sector. Other concrete measures are also proposed in the report of the Working Group on the Future of Québec's Audiovisual Industry (Groupe de travail sur l'avenir de l'audiovisuel au Québec), submitted in October 2025, thereby helping to strengthen competitiveness in this sector.

2.2.8. COMPETITION

The Corporation competes with a variety of soundstage and equipment rental and post-production firms, some of which have a national presence and, to a lesser extent, the in-house operations of its major motion picture studio customers. Some of these firms and studios have greater financial and marketing resources and have achieved a higher level of brand recognition than the Corporation. The Corporation may also face competition from companies in related markets that could offer similar or superior services to those offered by the Corporation.

2.2.9. CYCLICAL ACTIVITIES

Although cyclical, particularly for film soundstage, mobile and cinema equipment rental, the level of activity for this sector remains dependent on the production services needs of international and local producers.

2.3. MAGAZINES

2.3.1. TVA PUBLICATIONS

The Magazines segment offers a multitude of titles to its readers. In addition to its regular titles, this segment offers special, thematic and seasonal issues. Its principal trademarks focus on two market niches:

Entertainment

- 7 Jours
- La Semaine
- Échos Vedettes
- Cool!
- TV Hebdo

Monthly

- Canadian Living
- Coup de pouce
- Clin d'œil
- Style at Home
- Les idées de ma maison

The Magazines segment also offers its brands and contents on different digital platforms. Thus, the following websites broadcast daily content related to the editorial line of its corresponding brands:

| • tvhebdo.com | • coupdepouce.com |

| • recettes.qc.ca | |

Erreur ! Référence de lien hypertexte non valide.Erreur ! Référence de lien hypertexte non valide. Since 2016, the Corporation offers the "Molto" app, a digital newsstand that gives users unlimited access to the full content of all of the Corporation's magazines on their tablets and smartphones via payment of a monthly subscription fee. Those publications are also available on PressReader and Zinio platforms.

Each magazine's content is either produced internally by the employees of the Corporation, by freelancers or companies under common control, or purchased on the market. Art direction, computer graphics as well as coordination and review of the content are done by employees of TVA Publications. Printing, distribution and finishing work as well as management of subscriber databases are outsourced by internal and external service providers.

2.3.2. SOURCES OF REVENUE

The main sources of revenue for the Magazines segment are advertising sales, newsstand sales and subscription revenues. On April 1, 2010, the Government of Canada launched the Canada Periodical Fund ("CPF"). The CPF provides financial assistance to the Canadian magazine and non-daily newspaper industries so they can continue to produce and distribute Canadian content. In 2020, the Minister of Canadian Heritage announced the modernization of the CPF with the objective of placing greater emphasis on the creation of Canadian content, a change that took effect for the grant period starting April 1, 2021, with a five-year transition period, at the end of which the program changes will all be in effect. Given that the previous granting methodology was geared more towards distribution of titles, this change has and will continue to have an impact on the amount of government assistance received by this segment from the regular program. TVA Publications benefits from this program and the total assistance related to this program represents 19.8% of the segment's revenues for fiscal 2025. The downward trend in the publishing market and the increase in media diversity remain significant issues affecting the segment's performance. Nevertheless, the strength of the Corporation's trademarks is an important asset.

The Magazine segment of the Corporation experiences seasonality due to, among other factors, seasonal advertising patterns and influences on people's reading habits. Its operating results are sensitive to prevailing economic conditions including changes in local, regional and national economic conditions because the Corporation depends on the sale of advertising and on newsstand sales for a significant portion of its revenues.

2.3.3. COMPETITION

The Magazines segment faces competition in an ever-changing market: market consolidation, discontinuation of certain issues or less frequent publication, etc. Print media faces increasing competition from digital media, some of which offer free content and new technological platforms. More recently, the emergence of artificial intelligence platforms and the integration of AI-generated responses in search engines such as Google have had a particular impact on lifestyle-related content. The same applies to social media algorithms, which have reduced the visibility of this type of content.

2.4. PRODUCTION & DISTRIBUTION

The Corporation, through the companies in the Incendo group and the TVA Films division, produces and distributes television shows, movies and television series for the world market.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, the segment continued to carry out its distribution business on different platforms including movie theaters, video-on-demand, DVD, digital and television. The Corporation is responsible for all steps involved in the commercialization of its catalog, from marketing and promotion to sales in Canada and internationally.

2.4.1. SOURCES OF REVENUE

Activities related to the distribution of films produced by Incendo accounted for 35.1% of the segment's revenues, in fiscal 2025. In 2025, Incendo, continued to diversify the type of content produced on demand for its clients by producing two Christmas romantic comedies. This type of content adds to production catalogue which includes horror films, romantic comedies and thrillers. In 2020, a shift towards the production of romantic comedies had begun which has diversified the niche of films distributed in 2021. In 2022, Incendo also produced, in co-production with an Irish partner, its first drama series since Versailles.

TVA Films is involved in the acquisition and administration, in Canada and abroad, of rights for the distribution of films and audiovisual productions as well as television broadcast formats. Revenues are derived from four main sources: the operation of audiovisual works in rental, cinema distribution, the sale of movies, television series and recordings of audiovisual shows on various digital platforms and the sale of products contained in its catalogue on various audiovisual platforms (video-on-demand, pay-TV and pay-per-view, general interest and specialty TV channels and new media).

2.4.2. CUSTOMERS

Incendo's customer base consists primarily of traditional broadcasters, holders of streaming platforms, pay and conventional television in Canada but also, and especially, international markets. In some broader and relatively homogenous territories, Incendo's customers include specialty distributors. Increasing numbers of digital platforms are seeking to acquire made-for-television movies, resulting in a degree of growth in revenues either directly from those platforms or via digital content aggregators. Incendo represents multiple Canadian and U.S. producers on the Canadian television distribution market, as well as on international markets in some cases.

2.4.3. COMPETITION

Incendo's competitors are the independent producers of English-language content. A high concentration of made-for-television suspense and romantic comedy productions is shot and produced in Canada, mainly in Ontario and British Columbia. With regard to television series, Incendo's competition is worldwide, and the number of industry players on that market is substantial.

2.5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Corporation owns or uses under licence a number of trademarks which form part of its most important intangible assets. The main trademarks for its products and services are filed or registered in Canada. In addition, the Corporation has rights arising from its use of unregistered trademarks. It takes all required legal measures to protect its trademarks and believes that these trademarks are appropriately covered for its needs.

The audiovisual content that the Corporation produces, distributes or broadcasts usually benefits from a legal protection regime under the copyright laws applicable in the territories where it originates from or where it is used. These protection regimes generally allow for civil and criminal penalties in the event of any unauthorized use, broadcast or reproduction of audiovisual content.

The content incorporating works within the meaning of the Copyright Act included in TVA's publications and on its websites is also protected under the relevant legal regime. By way of law or contract, the Corporation is the owner of the intellectual property rights on most of this content, subject to limited exceptions, including the content incorporating works from national or international agencies. The Corporation therefore ensures that it enters into licence agreements with these agencies, freelancers and any other providers under conditions that enable it to meet its operating needs. The Corporation believes that it has taken the appropriate and reasonable measures to cover, use, protect and guarantee the protection of the content that it has created and distributed.

The Corporation has registered certain domain names that it uses to operate websites associated with its activities. Since each Internet domain name is unique, its domain names cannot be registered by other entities as long as its registrations remain valid.

2.6. HUMAN RESOURCES AND LABOUR RELATIONS

At December 31, 2025, TVA had 795 permanent employees.

The following table shows the number of permanent employees in each business segment:

Broadcasting:	457
Film Production & Audiovisual Services	247
Magazines:	80
Production & Distribution	11
TOTAL:	795

As of December 31, 2025, approximately 42% of the Corporation's permanent employees were unionized. TVA's labour relations are governed by four collective agreements, one of which had expired as of December 31, 2025, covering about 2% of the Corporation's permanent unionized employees.

2.7. ENVIRONMENT

The operations of TVA are subject to federal, provincial and municipal laws and regulations concerning environmental matters. The Corporation also owns certain soundstages and vacant lots, some of which are located on a former landfill, where gas emitting waste is buried.

The management of the Corporation believes that compliance with the environmental regulation applicable to its activities has not a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

As provided in its environmental strategy, the Corporation is determined to reduce the environmental impact of its activities through the deployment of eco-responsible initiatives such as the responsible management of residual materials and the electrification of its vehicle fleet.

The Corporation assesses its risks and opportunities related to climate change, such as the physical risks of extreme weather events on its infrastructures, and transitional risks such as the adoption of new environmental regulations by the relevant authorities.

2.8. REORGANIZATION

On November 2, 2023, in the context of the worldwide crisis in the media industry, the Corporation announced major changes to its organizational structure. It has implemented a reorganization plan that refocuses on its mission as a broadcaster, restructures its news division and optimizes its real estate holdings. The plan is aimed at reducing operating costs and resulted in a reduction of the Corporation's workforce by more than 500 employees. Most of the costs associated with this downsizing were recognized in the fourth quarter of 2023, and certain adjustments have been recorded in 2024.

The reorganization plan was made necessary by the difficult financial, economic and competitive situation affecting TVA and the entire industry. The audiovisual and media landscape throughout the West is undergoing profound and unprecedented changes as a result of the globalization of television viewing, driven by the proliferation of on-demand digital broadcasting platforms (Netflix, Amazon Prime, Disney+, Apple TV+, Crave, Tou.tv EXTRA, Peacock, Roku, Hulu, etc.) and the tectonic shift in advertising spending to the Web giants (Google, YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, Tik Tok, X, etc.). These are not short-term changes but a long-term trend that is reshaping the broadcasting ecosystem.

As a first step, TVA Group announced that it will focus on its role as a broadcaster and would cease its in-house production of entertainment content by its TVA Productions subsidiary. The three audience-pleasing entertainment programs that were produced in-house—Le Tricheur, La Poule aux œufs d'or and VLOG—will remain staples of TVA's schedule but have been outsourced to external independent producers. Only the morning shows Salut Bonjour and Salut Bonjour Week-end, the newscasts, the TVA and LCN public affairs programs, and some TVA Sports programs continue to be produced by in-house teams. Production activities were phased out in 2024 and have been transferred to outside suppliers, taking into account current program schedules.

The second measure concerns the news outlets of TVA and Quebecor: TVA, LCN, Le Journal de Montréal, Le Journal de Québec, QUB radio, 24 heures, TVA Sports, TVA Publications magazines, and the other digital brands. To ensure the quality of its news coverage in a precarious industry, TVA reorganized its news crews based in Montréal, Québec City and its local stations in the rest of Québec. The situation also calls for closer collaboration among all of Quebecor's media properties to capitalize on the strengths of each, reach Quebecers more effectively and compete with the Web giants for advertising dollars. In Montréal, the teams from all of Quebecor's conventional and digital news media have been brought together under one roof at 4545 Frontenac Street to form a media and digital production hub. Each media outlet will continue developing exclusive content and making its own editorial decisions, while having access to content distributed by QMI Agency. In accordance with the conditions of licence set by the CRTC, the TVA and LCN newsrooms will be managed separately and independently of Quebecor's newspapers and other media properties. Bringing staff together makes it possible to provide employees with a state-of-the-art work environment, including new studios. The centralized location will facilitate coordination and work planning within the teams and promote the pooling of some expertise and news gathering. Moreover, TVA's Québec City teams continue to record the newscasts for all the other local stations. The local stations continue to broadcast different newscasts, which will be delivered by a single anchor, to make their own editorial decisions and to produce their own content. To continue providing strong local coverage that reflects local realities and issues, TVA has ensured that teams of reporters in the field for its stations in eastern Québec, Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean, Sherbrooke and Trois-Rivières. The TVA affiliates in Carleton, Gatineau, Rivière-du-Loup and Rouyn are not affected by the announced plan. The Corporation is reducing its real estate holdings outside Montréal and Québec City to lower the operating costs of the local stations, which are currently running a deficit, while maintaining local coverage.

The third measure concerns TVA's real estate holdings. Following the relocations resulting from the changes described above, TVA's Corporate Services, Quebecor Expertise Media and Quebecor Out-of-Home teams have been moved into Quebecor's head office building. The building at 4545 Frontenac Street in Montréal now accommodates all of Quebecor's media teams, including Salut Bonjour, TVA Nouvelles, LCN, TVA Sports and TVA Publications magazines, after undergoing major renovations over the last few months.

The plan announced on November 2, 2023, springs from a desire to restore TVA to a position of strength and secure its future. Audiences continue to be well served: the Corporation continued, in 2025, its high-quality newscasts and programming that brings people together, including popular favourites such as Révolution, Chanteurs Masqués, Indéfendable, Alertes and Salut Bonjour, as well as major sports events.

A press release was issued on November 2, 2023, which provides more details on the context of the reorganization and may be viewed on the SEDAR+ website at www.sedarplus.ca and on the Corporation's website at www.groupetva.ca.

ITEM 3 HIGHLIGHTS

In the past three fiscal years, the following events have influenced the development and growth of TVA:

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

During the course of 2025, there were certain evolutions in the Corporation's leadership team. In February 2025, in light of the many challenges facing the television and film production industry, the Corporation decided, by mutual agreement with Mr. Jean-Philippe Normandeau, Vice-President, Studios & International Development of MELS and COO of Incendo, to abolish his position. In April 2025, Mathieu Turbide was appointed Vice-President, Digital Content and Magazines as successor to Ms. Lyne Robitaille, who retired from her position as Senior Vice-President, Newspapers, Books and Magazines in May 2025. Also in May 2025, Ms. Annick Mongeau, who had been a member of the Corporation's Board of Directors since 2014, announced that she would not seek another term as director after her term expired on May 6, 2025.

On June 12, 2025, the Corporation amended its $120,000,000 secured renewable credit facility with QMI to extend its term from June 15, 2025, to June 30, 2026.

On August 6, 2025, the Corporation announced the appointment of Mr. Louis-Philippe Neveu as Vice-President, Operations, News and Sports. In addition to his responsibilities at "TVA Sports," Mr. Neveu will head TVA's key news division and "LCN," and oversee all operations of TVA Group's Broadcasting segment.

On November 20, 2025, Ms. Luana Ann Church was appointed Vice-President, Development, Acquisitions and Distribution of QMI, with responsibility for Incendo, Quebecor Content and Quebecor Films Inc. Her mission is to expand the reach and value of content belonging to the Corporation and the parent corporation's other subsidiaries on local and international markets, and to continue developing international partnerships.

During the fourth quarter of 2025, the Corporation recorded a favorable retroactive adjustment in connection with carriage fees for the specialty channels other than the news channels, mainly the "TVA Sports" channel, in the amount of $36,402,000 relating to periods prior to January 1, 2025, as well as a favorable adjustment of $7,476,000 for 2026.

On January 1, 2026, following the period covered by this Annual Information Form, the Corporation sold the assets of its TVA Films division to Quebecor Films Inc., a subsidiary of QMI, for proceeds on disposal of $2,000,000, plus liabilities assumed as part of the transaction.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

On January 10, 2024, MELS announced the appointment of Jean-Philippe Normandeau as Vice-President, Studios and International Development at MELS. Alongside this appointment, he remains in his position as Chief Operating Officer at Incendo.

On January 11, 2024, the “Yoopa” channel was replaced with a TV version of QUB radio.

On March 28, 2024, the Corporation sold its building in Saguenay to the parent corporation for proceeds on disposal of $2,600,000.

On April 9, 2024, the “MOI ET CIE” channel became “TÉMOIN,” the 100% crime and scandal destination.

On April 11, 2024, the Corporation renewed each of the two collective agreements covering its unionized employees in Montreal as well in Quebec City and the local stations. The agreements will enable the Corporation to proceed with the reorganization plan it announced on November 2, 2023.

Mr. Jean-Marc Léger, a member of the Corporation's Board of Directors since 2007, stepped down as a director on May 7, 2024, at the end of his term.

During the second quarter of 2024, the Corporation performed an impairment test on the Production & Distribution cash-generating unit due to the competitive industry environment and the slowdown in its volume of activities. The Corporation concluded that the recoverable amount of the unit was less than its carrying amount and a goodwill impairment charge of $7,781,000 was recorded.

During the second quarter of 2024, a favourable retroactive adjustment of $10,184,000 was recorded for the period of September 1, 2017 to December 31, 2023 in connection with the royalty rates of the “LCN” channel.

2023 HIGHLIGHTS

On February 16, 2023, the Corporation announced a restructuring plan including the elimination of approximately 140 positions. These layoffs plus the elimination of approximately 100 additional positions at other Quebecor entities that provide services to the Corporation totalled 240 positions. These layoffs enabled the Corporation to reduce operating expenses for all the Corporation's business units.

On March 31, 2023, Marjorie Daoust was appointed as Vice-President, Finance after Anick Dubois informed management of her decision to leave the Corporation.
