Drill core whole rock analysis indicate that the Na and Ca are almost totally depleted, indicating a strong alteration system.

The Zn/Pb ratios are similar to those of the Geco deposit located to the north-east and are typical of many VMS deposits in pyroclastic terrains. Silver and gold are strongly correlated and both correlate more strongly with Cu than with Zn or Pb. This also is typical of higher-temperature VMS systems and indicates that the area drilled to date is in a classic VMS setting. Qualified persons supervising the Companies' activities were Robert and Glenn Kasner.

Bore-hole geophysics and additional drilling is required to further evaluate this area. In addition, several airborne geophysical anomalies west of the current drilling remain untested.

GLR Resources is a Canadian Based Exploration Company with several gold, basemetal and Platinum group metals properties within its portfolio with the most advanced being the 100% owned Goldfields Project consisting of two open pitable gold deposits being advanced to production.
