Item 4 Summary of Material Change

Wildcat announced that Mammoth Minerals Inc. (“Mammoth”), a private company with mineral exploration properties in Guyana, has acquired the rights to explore on an additional 24 properties totalling 25,155 acres in the Noseno/Warapati area of Guyana. The mineral exploration rights were acquired through an auction held by the Government of Guyana for total cash consideration of US$100,570.

Item 5 Full Description of Material Change

Wildcat announced that Mammoth Minerals Inc. (“Mammoth”), a private company with mineral exploration properties in Guyana, has acquired the rights to explore on an additional 24 properties totalling 25,155 acres in the Noseno/Warapati area of Guyana. The mineral exploration rights were acquired through an auction held by the Government of Guyana for total cash consideration of US$100,570.

As announced on May 6, 2010 Wildcat’s wholly owned subsidiary Riva Gold Corp. (“Riva Gold”) has signed a business combination agreement (the “Agreement”) to acquire control of Mammoth, which now holds a large land package totalling 41,730 acres in the highly prospective Noseno/Warapati area. These additional permits go a long way toward consolidating Mammoth’s Noseno/Warapati land position. Riva Gold has outlined several drill targets and on completion of the acquisition of Mammoth, plans to start a diamond drilling campaign.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Riva Gold will acquire Mammoth in an all-share transaction, following which Wildcat will spin out the shares of Riva Gold to existing Wildcat shareholders pursuant to a plan of arrangement. Completion of this arms length transaction is subject to, among other conditions, approval of the shareholders of each of Wildcat and Mammoth, court approval of the arrangement, and regulatory approvals.

Management Appointment

In addition, Riva Gold has appointed Margaret Brodie to the position of CFO, effective June 1, 2010. Ms. Brodie is a Chartered Accountant with a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of British Columbia, and is a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. Most recently she spent six years working for KPMG in London, England where she worked with FTSE 15 companies including BHP Billiton plc and Diageo plc as well as participated in a number of AIM listings for resource companies. Ms. Brodie has also been involved in several publications in the natural resources sector including co-authoring KPMG’s 2006 global mining survey.

Wildcat Chairman Richard Warke said: “We are very pleased to have Margaret join Riva Gold as CFO. Her appointment represents the first step in building a team of strong, seasoned professionals who will lead our efforts to build Riva Gold into a leading gold exploration company.”

Stock Options

Wildcat also announces it has granted 440,000 incentive stock options to officers and employees of the Company. The options are exercisable at $0.46 per share for a period of five years expiring on June 1, 2015.
