Las Vegas President and C.E.O. Jake Kalpakian states; "The Company has recently experienced an increased interest in its software from third parties, some of whom are very well known established operators." Mr. Kalpakian further adds; "While the Company will continue to build traditional games, its primary focus will still be developing games that cater to specialized gaming interests and markets. To that extent, the Company has recently commenced several overseas initiatives to complement its' business strategies."
