Vancouver, B.C. – May 23, 2017 – Totally Hip announces that following the completion of its share restructuring and recent financing, it has commenced reviewing several business opportunities in technology space, traditional TSX venture areas, and other emerging businesses. Totally Hip has identified a number of different mechanisms for participation and is developing them through expanded administrative and technical/legal capabilities.

Totally Hip also announces that it has welcomed Mr. Kirk Shaw to its board of directors. Mr. Shaw actively finances and produces multimillion dollar movies. Mr. Shaw's entertainment industry success includes leading Canada's largest independent film and television production company. He has produced, financed and delivered over 200 movies, series and documentaries with aggregate revenue exceeding $700 million to clients such as Sony and NBC Universal. Mr. Shaw is also a director of Bearing Resources Ltd. Mr. Shaw brings a diverse business background and executive/finance relationships to Totally Hip.

Mr. Shaw will be spearheading Totally Hip's business development.
