OPAWICA PROVIDES UPDATE ON VIEWPOINT

Vancouver, British Columbia, March 2nd, 2023, (TSXV: OPW: FSE: A2PEAD) (OTCQB: OPWEF: (the "Company" or Opawica") announces that further to the news release dated November 10, 2022, the Viewpoint docuseries where Opawica is featured has yet to air due to scheduling conflicts. The episode featuring Opawica was originally scheduled to air in December 2022 as previously announced.

An educational documentary series "Viewpoint with Dennis Quaid" (Viewpoint") produces educational documentaries on a range of topics including business, technology, travel, health, and culture – with a focus on highlighting innovation around the world. Viewpoint is distributed nationwide in the United States through public television stations and major networks.

Once the Company has received updated timing information on the airtime from Viewpoint a news release will be issued to update shareholders accordingly.

Background

In 2021, Viewpoint producers reached out to the CEO of Opawica Explorations Inc. Blake Morgan, as part of their search for a featured company to headline a planned episode on Junior Mining and Exploration in Canada. After several months of discussions with senior producers and writers, the Company was chosen and offered the chance to participate. Given the educational aim of the series, one of the primary goals of the episode will be to bring attention to Opawica and their impact on mineral exploration. Opawica's use of AI technology, it's CEO and elite projects fit this mandate, and were significant contributing factors in Viewpoint's selection.

Opawica's management and Viewpoint production team began filming on May 24th, 2022 and created content to be released to over 60 million homes in 2022. In addition to the final products designed for television release, the Company will also retain all the high-definition raw camera footage (5+ hours) for potential future use.
