SiegeSoft.com Founder Makes Headlines in US

VANCOUVER, BC, March 17, 2000 – Siegesoft.com founder Rishi Bhat is receiving unprecedented media attention in the USA and Canada.

Rishi Bhat, a Grade 10 Chicago student and founder of the Internet privacy company, "SiegeSoft.com", will be interviewed live on ABC's Good Morning America the morning of March 20, 2000 in New York. That interview will be followed by a televised session with Yahoo! Finance Vision later that day, along with a series of meetings with the editors of various mainstream computer publications. You can view the Yahoo! Finance Vision interview at <http://financevision.yahoo.com>

Mr. Bhat will fly back to Chicago for a Business Week Magazine interview, to be included in an upcoming feature story on young computer prodigies.

Since the story first broke in The Chicago Sun-Times on October 22, 1999, Mr. Bhat has been the subject of major media stories in The Chicago Tribune, The National Post, CNN, CNNfn, FOX News, ABC News and on various local radio and television stations in cities throughout the United States (Chicago; Los Angeles; San Francisco; Sacramento; Phoenix; Cleveland; Knoxville; Milwaukee).

The story has also been widely covered by the on-line community, with features having appeared on Rediff.com, The Times of India, Economic Times Online and Bloomberg.

"We're obviously delighted with the coverage," said SiegeSoft President Dave Hodge. "It's a great story, and the media attention has driven an increased number of people to our Website (<http://www.siegesoft.com>), which has helped fuel sales of our Internet Privacy products."

Siegesoft.com utilizes encryption technology to offer users the ability to visit any Website anonymously, thereby removing the potential onslaught of unsolicited e-mail. Users are also protected from having their personal information recorded by the Websites they visit.

The product can be purchased on-line at <http://www.siegesoft.com>. Potential subscribers are invited to try the service on a free trial basis before sign-up.

Subscribers are charged an annual fee of $50.00 for access to the Privacy Suite of products.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
ROCCA RESOURCES LTD.
