Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

The Issuer has received TSX Venture Exchange approval of its acquisition of the Sabodala Property in the Republic of Sénégal. The Sabodala Property is held by the Oromin Joint Venture Group ("OJVG") a joint venture between the Issuer and Bendon International Ltd. ("Bendon"), each as to 50% with the Issuer and Bendon each holding a 6.5% interest in trust for Badr Investment & Finance Company

("Badr"), a private company based in Saudi Arabia, pending its execution of a tripartite joint venture agreement on the same terms as the current joint venture agreement between the Issuer and Bendon, such joint venture interest to be transferred to Badr on execution of such tripartite agreement. The OJVG the sole right to acquire a 100% interest in the Sabodala Property from the Government of Sénégal by spending at least USD$8 million on exploration by April 17, 2007. Under the terms of the OJVG joint venture agreement, Bendon will provide the initial USD$2.8 million in exploration expenditures with the Issuer providing the subsequent USD$5.2 million commitment. Bendon has agreed to arrange financing, through an equity placement in the Issuer, of at least USD$4 million of the Issuer's expenditure commitment. Bendon will also take a lead role in arranging any production financing that the OJVG may require. Badr holds a free carried interest until the initial USD$8 million commitment is completed, at which time the three parties will bear all future costs associated with the exploration and development of the Sabodala Property on a pro rata basis, or be subject to dilution.

The Issuer has also received TSX Venture Exchange approval for a series of loans totalling CAD$625,000 that bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum; are convertible at the option of the lenders into units of the Issuer at a price of CAD$0.45 per unit, each unit being comprised of one share and one share purchase warrant entitling the purchase of an additional share of the Issuer at a price of CAD$0.45 per share for a period of two years following the date of conversion of the loan; and are repayable within five business days following the closing of the Issuer's next financing sufficient to generate net proceeds of not less than CAD$625,000, but in any event by February 2, 2007. The proceeds for the loans have been used to fund the Issuer's operations in Sénégal.

The Issuer has also received TSX Venture Exchange approval for a loan in the amount of USD$500,000 that bears interest at the rate of 12% per annum; is convertible at the option of the lender into units of the Issuer at a price of $0.43 per unit, each unit being comprised of one share and one share purchase warrant entitling the purchase of an additional share of the Issuer at a price of $0.43 per share for a period of two years following the date of conversion of the loan; and is repayable within ten business days following the closing of the Issuer's next financing sufficient to pay the loan and the earlier series of loans totalling CAD$625,000, but in any event twenty-four months following the date on which the loan is advanced. The proceeds for the loans will be used to fund the Issuer's operations in Argentina.

NEWS RELEASE

Oromin Explorations Ltd. ("Oromin") is pleased to report that it has received TSX Venture Exchange ("TSX") approval of its acquisition of the Sabodala Property in the Republic of Sénégal. The Sabodala Property is held by the Oromin Joint Venture Group ("OJVG") a joint venture between Oromin and Bendon International Ltd. ("Bendon"), each as to 50%, with the Issuer and Bendon each holding a 6.5% interest in trust for Badr Investment & Finance Company ("Badr"), a private company based in Saudi Arabia, pending its execution of a tripartite joint venture agreement on the same terms as the current joint venture agreement between the Issuer and Bendon, such joint venture interest to be transferred to Badr on execution of such tripartite agreement. The OJVG has the sole right to acquire a 100% interest in the Sabodala Property from the Government of Sénégal by spending at least USD$8 million on exploration by April 17, 2007. Under the terms of the OJVG joint venture agreement, Bendon will provide the initial USD$2.8 million in exploration expenditures with Oromin providing the subsequent USD$5.2 million commitment. Bendon has agreed to arrange financing, through an equity placement in Oromin, of at least USD$4 million of Oromin's expenditure commitment. Bendon will also take a lead role in arranging any production financing that the OJVG may require. Badr holds a free carried interest until the initial USD$8 million commitment is completed, at which time the three parties will bear all future costs associated with the exploration and development of the Sabodala Property on a pro rata basis, or be subject to dilution.

Further to its news releases of February 2 and May 11, 2005, Oromin has also received TSX approval for a series of loans totalling CAD$625,000 that bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum; are convertible at the option of the lenders into units of Oromin at a price of CAD$0.45 per unit, each unit being comprised of one share and one share purchase warrant entitling the purchase of an additional share of Oromin at a price of CAD$0.45 per share for a period of two years following the date of conversion of the loan; and are repayable within five business days following the closing of Oromin's next financing sufficient to generate net proceeds of not less than CAD$625,000, but in any event by February 2, 2007. The proceeds for the loans have been used to fund Oromin's operations in Sénégal.

Further to its news release of August 9, 2005, Oromin has also received TSX Venture Exchange approval for a loan in the amount of USD$500,000 that bears interest at the rate of 12% per annum; is convertible at the option of the lender into units of Oromin at a price of $0.43 per unit, each unit being comprised of one share and one share purchase warrant entitling the purchase of an additional share of Oromin at a price of $0.43 per share for a period of two years following the date of conversion of the loan; and is repayable within ten business days following the closing of Oromin's next financing sufficient to pay the loan and the earlier series of loans totalling CAD$625,000, but in any event twenty-four months following the date on which the loan is advanced. The proceeds for the loans will be used to fund Oromin's operations in Argentina.
