GGL Resources Corp. Announces Board and Management Changes

Vancouver, BC – June 3, 2025 – GGL Resources Corp. (TSX-V: GGL) ("GGL" or the "Company") announces the resignation of John Gilbert as CEO and Director. Matthew Turner, a Director of GGL, will succeed Mr. Gilbert as CEO on an interim basis. The GGL Board would like to sincerely thank Mr. Gilbert for his efforts and wish him the best in his future endeavours.

About GGL Resources Corp.

GGL is a seasoned, Canadian-based junior exploration company, focused on the exploration and advancement of under evaluated mineral assets in politically stable, mining friendly jurisdictions. The Company has optioned and wholly owned claims in the Gold Point district of the prolific Walker Lane Trend, Nevada. The Gold Point claims cover several gold-silver veins, five of which host past producing high-grade mines, as well as an exciting new porphyry target which is currently under option to Teck American Incorporated. The Company also owns the McConnell Project, which hosts epithermal gold veins and an under explored porphyry copper-gold prospect in the Kemess District of north-central British Colombia. GGL also holds diamond royalties on mineral leases adjacent to the Gahcho Kué diamond mine in the Northwest Territories.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD
