Stamper Oil & Gas Announce Change to its Board of Directors and Status Update on MOU with State and Sudapet

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, June 04, 2018 -- Stamper Oil & Gas Corp. (TSX-V:STMP) (FSE:TMP2) (OTCQB:STMGF) ("Stamper" or "the Company") today announces the resignation of Hon. Herb Dhaliwal as a Director of Stamper effective immediately. At this time the Company will remain with a vacancy on the board until a suitable replacement is found.

The Company would like to thank Mr. Dhaliwal for his service and for his sound advice that he brought to the Board, specifically on assisting with government advice. The Company wishes him the best of success in his numerous business ventures for many years to come.

David Greenway, Chief Executive Officer of Stamper Oil & Gas, said, "I, along with all my fellow board members and management of the Company, thank Mr. Dhaliwal for his dedication to Stamper and for his contributions and wish him all the best in his future endeavors."

State Oil Corporation ("State") has also advised that the Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") between State and Sudapet Company Ltd. ("Sudapet"), the national oil company of Sudan, is still not in good standing. The Company has been advised by State that they are in discussions with Sudapet and have been told that definitive decision should be received during the following week.

The Company is also working hard at this time on evaluating other oil and gas projects in Latin America and Africa.

Company engaged Advanced Media Consultant Ltd. for consulting services on the production and dissemination of six reports through Oil Price.com, and issued 2,000,000 common shares of the Company and is waiting for TSX Venture Exchange approval.
