Foreword

On 30 March 2022, the companies Massimo Moratti S.a.p.A. di Massimo Moratti (“MM S.a.p.A.”), Angel Capital Management S.p.A. (“ACM”) and Stella Holding S.p.A. (“Stella” and, jointly with MM S.a.p.A. and ACM, the “Parties” and each of the Parties, individually, the “Party”), signed a shareholders’ agreement relating to the shares that each of them respectively holds in Saras S.p.A., concerning, among other things, the appointment of the corporate bodies of Saras S.p.A., the exercise of voting rights at the shareholders’ meetings of Saras S.p.A. and a mutual obligation on the non-transferability of Saras S.p.A. shares and the related rights held by each of the aforementioned companies, except in certain cases provided for therein (the “Saras Agreement”).

The Saras Agreement replaced the shareholders’ agreement originally signed by Gian Marco Moratti S.a.p.A. di Gian Marco Moratti, subsequently denominated MOBRO S.p.A. (which was subsequently the subject of a non-proportional total demerger in favour of ACM and Stella) and MM S.a.p.A. on 1 October 2013, as subsequently amended pursuant to a supplementary agreement signed by the same Parties to the Saras Agreement on 24 June 2019 (the “2013 Agreement”), which was mutually terminated by the Parties with effect from the date of signing of the Saras Agreement.

As disclosed to the market on 11 February 2024, the Parties entered into a sale and purchase agreement with Vitol B.V. (“Vitol”) pursuant to which the Parties undertook, subject to the occurrence of certain conditions precedent, to sell to Vitol Saras S.p.A.’s shares representing approximately 35% of the share capital of Saras (the “Sale and Purchase”).

In addition, as a result of the signing of the aforementioned agreement, ACM and BofA Securities Europe SA (“BofA”) terminated the so-called funded collar loan agreement entered into on 1 February 2023 between ACM and BofA (the “Collar Termination”), in connection with which ACM had pledged 47,576,140 Saras shares (pursuant to the provision of the Saras Agreement described in section 4.3.3 below). As a result of the Collar

The aforementioned Sale and Purchase as well as the transfers of Saras' shares related to the Collar Termination were reciprocally authorized by the Parties to the Saras Agreement by letters exchanged on 11 February 2024, in partial derogation from the provisions of the Saras Agreement.

In addition, it should be noted that the Saras Agreement provides that the commitments contained therein replace the 2013 Agreement.

4.1 Appointment of Saras corporate bodies

4.1.1 The Parties shall do everything in their power to ensure that there are twelve members of the Board of Directors and that they agree to submit, and vote in the shareholders' meetings of Saras convened for the appointment of corporate officers, a list of candidates for appointment as members of the Company's board of directors, in which:

In any case, the candidates shall be indicated in the list according to the order of size of the percentage of voting rights relating to the Syndicated Shares held by the Party or Parties that have made the relevant designation.

4.1.2 The Parties agree to submit and vote at the shareholders' meetings of Saras which shall be convened for the appointment of corporate offices a list of candidates for appointment as members of the Board of Statutory Auditors of the Company composed as follows: for the first election following the Date of Execution, MM S.a.p.A. shall designate candidate no. 1 of the list for standing auditors and candidate no. 2 of the list for alternate auditors, while ACM and Stella, jointly, shall designate candidates no. 2 and no. 3 of the list for standing auditors, with the designation of candidate no. 3 as Chairman in accordance with the practice followed in previous appointments, and candidate no. 1 from the list for alternate auditors.

4.1.3 In the event of severance, for whatever reason, of a director selected from the list submitted pursuant to the Saras Agreement, the Parties shall ensure that, both in the event of co-opting by the Board of Directors and in the event of confirmation or replacement by resolution of the shareholders' meeting, the co-opted, appointed or confirmed member of the Board of Directors is designated by the Party or Parties who had designated the director who has left office.

4.2 Exercise voting rights at Saras shareholders' meetings

4.2.1 The Parties agree to meet in advance for the purpose of examining and discussing the items included on the agenda of the Company's ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings from time to time, except for resolutions concerning the appointment of company officers.

4.2.2 The Parties shall consult each other in good faith in order to agree on a voting instruction for each item on the agenda of the subsequent Saras shareholders' meeting. At the end of the consultations, the Parties shall issue to the secretary of the Saras Agreement with the voting instructions that may have been agreed, conferring on him their respective voting proxies, without prejudice to the provisions set forth in paragraph 4.2.3.

4.2.3 Until one of the cases referred to in the following paragraph occurs: (i) if the Parties do not reach an agreement on the voting instructions for one or more items on the agenda, the secretary of the Saras Agreement shall abstain from voting in relation to such item or items at the Company's shareholders' meeting; (ii) if the Parties do not agree on the voting indications for any of the items on the agenda, the proxy of the secretary of the Saras Agreement for the relevant shareholders' meeting shall be deemed revoked and the Parties shall abstain from participating in the same.

It is understood that, in the case referred to in point (i) above, in relation to the points in respect of which the agreement provided for therein has not been reached, the secretary of the Saras Agreement shall exercise the voting right pertaining to each of the Parties in accordance with their respective instructions, and shall abstain from voting with regard to the Party that has not given such instructions.

4.3 Prohibition on Transfer

4.3.1 The Parties agree not to transfer, in whole or in part, the Syndicated Shares respectively held and the related Rights granted to the Saras Agreement. The Parties agree that the term “transfer” (and any other related term of the same origin) includes, among other things, any inter vivos alienation transaction or other deal or deed of any nature, whether free of charge or for consideration, regarding or for, directly or indirectly, the conferral, ownership or transfer to parties other than the Parties of Saras shares or rights deriving therefrom or relating thereto.

4.3.2 If, during the term of the Saras Agreement, an increase in the Company’s capital, against payment, is resolved, the Parties, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the Saras Agreement, shall be free to transfer to other Parties and/or third parties the option rights pursuant to Article 2441 of the Civil Code to which they are entitled in relation to the aforementioned increase.

In addition, ACM will be entitled, as from 1 February 2023, to freely transfer all or part of the Pledged Shares at any title provided that at least 50% of the shares held by ACM on the Effective Date remain contributed to the Saras Agreement and subject without exception to the restrictions, and therefore at least 47,576,140 Syndicated Shares, which will therefore be free of pledge.

4.4 Purchase and subscription to Saras shares

4.4.1 None of the Parties may become owners of Saras shares in addition to their respective Syndicated Shares without the prior written consent of the other Parties, except in the case of subscription of capital increases, free of charge or against payment, also following the purchase of option rights from the other Parties, without prejudice to the fact that the Parties may not purchase Saras shares and/or Rights, deriving therefrom or related thereto or enter into any other inter vivos deal or deed of any nature, whether for consideration or free of charge, or any other transaction, directly or indirectly, regarding or affecting Saras shares and/or on Rights deriving therefrom or relating thereto (without prejudice to the provisions set forth in paragraphs 4.3.2 and 4.3.3 above) or which may result in the application of the provisions of the Consolidated Law on Finance on mandatory public tender offers.

5. Duration of the shareholders' agreement
