Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

Supplement the summary required under item 4 with the disclosure which should be sufficiently complete to enable a reader to appreciate the significance of the material change without reference to other material. Management is in the best position to determine what facts are significant and must disclose those facts in a meaningful manner. See also item 7.

The description of the significant facts relating to the material change will therefore include some or all of the following: dates, parties, terms and conditions, description of any assets, liabilities or capital affected, purpose, financial or dollar values, reasons for the change, and a general comment on the probable impact on the reporting issuer or its subsidiaries. Specific financial forecasts would not normally be required to comply with this form.

The above list merely described examples of some of the facts which may be significant. The list is not intended to be inclusive or exhaustive of the information required in any particular situation.

For a full description of the material change, see Appendix "A".

Item 6. Reliance on Section 85(2) of the Act

If the report is being filed on a confidential basis in reliance of Section 85(2) of the Act, state the reasons for such reliance.

INSTRUCTION:

Refer to Section 85(3) of the Act concerning continuing obligations in respect of reports filed pursuant to this subsection.

Not Applicable.

Item 7. Omitted Information

In certain circumstances where a material change has occurred and a material change report has been or is about to be filed but s. 85(3) of the Act will no longer be relied upon, a reporting issuer may nevertheless believe one or more significant facts otherwise required to be disclosed in the material change report should remain confidential and not be disclosed or not be disclosed in full detail in the material change report.

State whether any information has been omitted on this basis and provide the reasons for any such omission in sufficient detail to permit the Commission to exercise its discretion pursuant to s. 169(3) of the Act.

The reasons for the omission may be contained in a separate letter filed as provided in section 153 of the Securities Rules.

Not Applicable.

OceanLake Launches Wireless Business to Consumer Software for The Shopping Channel

Toronto, Canada - OceanLake announces the launch of its wireless business-to-consumer (B2C) shopping application for TheShoppingChannel.com, Canada's leading multi channel retailer.

OceanLake proprietary wireless software commerce application for TheShoppingChannel.com has been linked to TheShoppingChannel.com's current e-commerce architecture.

"TheShoppingChannel.com has excelled at electronic commerce and fulfillment since the 1980s," said Ted Starkman, Vice President of Electronic Commerce at The Shopping Channel. "OceanLake Commerce has been central to our transition into our fifth retail channel - the wireless realm. We look forward to expanding the functionality of this wireless channel over the coming months."

"OceanLake is pleased to be selected as TheShoppingChannel.com's wireless applications developer," said Steve Koskie, President of OceanLake. "It is exceptional to find a client with the leadership and vision of the power of wireless-enabled shopping and information."

The system, developed by OceanLake, allows TheShoppingChannel.com customers to shop for best-selling items, last minute gifts, enter contests and view TheShoppingChannel.com news and program guide over Blackberry Wireless handheld devices, provided by Rogers AT&T® Wireless or other devices such as Wireless phones and Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs). The OceanLake application presents website content to the wireless device and provides all of the navigation, shopping functionality and a shopping cart for wireless purchases.

About TheShoppingChannel.Com

TheShoppingChannel.com is one of Canada's most innovative and diversified retailers. Since the launch of TheShoppingChannel.com's initial television shopping channel in 1987, TheShoppingChannel.com went on to launch a highly successful quarterly catalogue, storefront retail presence and online presence through www.TheShoppingChannel.com in 1999 and today is recognized as Canada's premier success story in electronic and diversified retailing.

TheShoppingChannel.com is a subsidiary of Rogers Media Inc.

About Rogers Media Inc.

Rogers Media Inc., a division of Rogers Communications Inc., [Toronto: RCI.A and RCI.B; NYSE: RG], operates three businesses: Rogers Broadcasting, Rogers Publishing and Rogers iMedia. Rogers Broadcasting has 30 AM and FM radio licences across Canada as well as Toronto multicultural television broadcaster, CFMT, and a national televised shopping service, the Shopping Channel. Rogers Publishing has a number of well-known consumer magazines such as Maclean's, Chatelaine, Flare, L'actualité, Canadian Business, and is the leading publisher of a number of trade publications. Rogers iMedia includes Internet properties such as Quicken.ca, Electric Library Canada, and Excite.ca.

About Rogers Wireless

Rogers Wireless Inc. operates under the brand name Rogers AT&T Wireless and is Canada's largest wireless communications service provider, with over 2.7 million customers and offices in Canadian cities from coast to coast. Rogers AT&T Wireless provides a complete range of wireless solutions including Digital PCS, cellular, paging, two-way messaging, and wireless data services. Rogers AT&T Wireless is wholly owned and operated by Rogers Wireless Communications Inc. (TSE: RCM.B; NYSE:RCN), which, in turn, is 51% owned by Rogers Communications and 33.3% owned equally by AT&T Corp. and British Telecommunications plc.

About OceanLake Commerce

OceanLake Commerce Inc. (www.oceanlake.com), a wholly owned subsidiary of Automated Recycling Inc. (CDNX: ENA), is a leading developer of wireless applications. In addition to OceanLake's wireless shopping cart used by The Shopping Channel, OceanLake also develops wireless applications for financial and banking transactions and salesforce automation. OceanLake has the unique capability to build voice navigation and voice-authenticated security into their wireless applications.

OceanLake is based in Toronto, Ontario with offices in San Jose, CA and Charlotte, SC.

Automated Recycling Inc. (the "Company") announces that it has agreed to a non-brokered private placement of up to 1,200,000 Special Warrants at a price of $0.50 per Special Warrant. Each Special Warrant will consist of one share and one warrant to purchase one additional common share exercisable for 12 months at a price of $0.60 per share. The Company anticipates full subscription will be in place by August 15, 2000. The net proceeds of $600,000 will be used to provide the Company with working capital and to fund the continuing development of OceanLake. The foregoing private placement is subject to regulatory approval.

The Company did not proceed with the Private Placement previously announced on March 16, 2000.
