

ISIS Finalizes Acquisition of Versatile Systems, Subject to Financing

Vancouver, BC, May 11, 2000 -- International Sales Information Systems (CDNX:ISI), a developer of mobile workforce and CRM solutions, today announced that it has completed its extensive due diligence of Versatile including a review of their technology, customers and business practices. In addition, all parties have formally executed the documents giving effect to the acquisition. Closing is now subject to regulatory approval and financing arrangements.

PricewaterhouseCoopers has audited Versatile's financial statements for 1998 and 1999, which confirmed trailing revenue for 1999 of US$9,126,000. ISIS has secured employment agreements with the three principals, James Lloyd, Francis McHugh, and Andrew Lynch.

Seattle-based Versatile (www.versatile-systems.com) develops wireless software solutions for use in Distribution, Supply Chain Management, Trade, and e-Fulfillment. Versatile has over 300 customers including U.S. West, Proctor & Gamble, Keebler, Airborne Express and Eddie Bauer. Versatile has strategic partnerships with AT&T Wireless IP Services, and Symbol Technologies.

"We have been very pleased with the results of the audit and due diligence of Versatile," stated John Hardy, ISIS Chairman and CEO. "The quality of the people, products and service is excellent and the fit between our two product lines has yielded several significant opportunities."

ISIS develops customer relationship management (CRM) software solutions that can operate via wireless, Wide Area Networks, and exchange data in real time to automate and manage mobile teams. ISIS, which is ISO 9001 certified, operates out of three offices in Vancouver, BC; Long Island, NY and London, England. Further information is available at www.isissoft.com.
