8.8 Replacement Of Share Certificates - If the shares are held in certificated form, all certificates surrendered to the Corporation shall be cancelled, and no new certificates shall be issued, nor shall any uncertificated shares be issued, until the former certificate for the same number of shares shall have been surrendered and cancelled except in case of a lost or destroyed certificate. expenses and evidence of loss and of title as the Board may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

8.9 Joint Shareholders - If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, the Corporation shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate or written notice in respect thereof, and delivery of such certificate or written notice to one of such persons shall be sufficient delivery to all of them. Any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for the certificate or written notice issued in respect thereof or for any dividend, bonus, return of capital or other money payable or warrant issuable in respect of such share. The Corporation must send to a holder of an uncertificated share a written notice containing the information required by the act within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of such share.

8.10 Deceased Shareholders - In the event of the death of a holder, or of one of the joint holders, of any share, the Corporation shall not be required to make any entry in the securities register in respect thereof or to make payment of any dividends thereon except upon production of all such documents as may be required by law and upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Corporation and its transfer agents.

At such a meeting any business may be transacted which the Corporation at a meeting of Shareholders may transact. If the meeting is held at a place outside Canada, Shareholders not present or represented by proxy, but who have waived notice of or otherwise consented to such meeting, shall also be deemed to have consented to the meeting being held at such place.

10.17 Ballots - On any question proposed for consideration at a meeting of Shareholders, and whether or not a show of hands has been taken thereon, any Shareholder or proxyholder entitled to vote at the meeting may require or demand a ballot.
