2. Foreword

Dear Shareholders, Customers, Business Associates and Employees, Ladies and Gentlemen.

In the second quarter of fiscal year 2010, the successful business development of the first quarter continued. Both quarters closed with a positive result. Our marketing and sales activities were further extended and the travel 24.com website was revised fundamentally. At the same time, the reorganisation of the Company advanced and can be considered as completed as of 30 June 2010.

The Company is now prepared for a successful future.

Yours,

Leipzig, August 2010

Jan Valentin CEO Travel24.com AG

3. Business development

Travel retail

In the second quarter 2010, online sales of the Company were consistently extended on the basis of the first quarter measures: marketing and commercialisation activities in Germany, Switzerland and Austria as well as the relaunch of the Travel24.com website contributed to a considerable rise in sales. The flight business on flug.24.de was stabilised on a high sales and profitability level.

Internet

In the second quarter 2010, the number of visits on travel24.com increased significantly compared to previous year (from 0.23 million to 2.1 million), the same applies for page impressions. Flug24.de counted 3.3 million visits.

The number of bookings also increased significantly, and the Company's growth exceeded the Internet market level of the travel business of about 20%. The economic basis can be considered as stable whereas stationary travel business continues to show a weaker development than the online business.

Marketing and IT

In the first half of 2010, the travel retail business was also assured by the contractual relationship with Unister GmbH, a subsidiary of Unister Holding GmbH. Unister GmbH operates and markets numerous Web portals in different business areas. With travel brands such as ab-in-den-urlaub.de and fluege.de, the online travel network of Unister GmbH is among the largest networks in Germany. A broad line up with complementary portals in different business areas is a key element of the business strategy of Unister GmbH. Competitiveness is particularly ensured by the innovative and efficient IT and Marketing department. Travel24.com AG was able to obtain attractive conditions for travel retail due to the agreement concluded with Unister GmbH in the context of the acquisition. Like this, and due to the service contract also concluded with Unister GmbH, Travel24.com AG benefits from the conditions of Unister GmbH and uses the synergies and know-how of the new shareholder.

4. Outlook

Travel 24.com AG plans to extend its business significantly with a view to increasing sales and results. The main focus is on extending marketing activities, product portfolio as well as market presence (internationalisation of business) through the Travel24.com brand. The flight segment is also being extended. Other business segments are still in the planning stages as of the time of preparation of the statement. According to recent planning and development, a positive result and cash flow will be reached in financial year 2010.

6. Interim management report

6.1 Report on net worth, financial position and results of operations

Revenue

In the first half of 2010, revenue from travel and flight retail as well as advertising amounted to TEUR 4.194.

Result

The Company generated an EBIT of TEUR 769 from operating business resulting in net profits of TEUR 517 with the full income tax charge (TEUR 252).

Cash and cash equivalents

In the first half of 2010, liquidity increased significantly from TEUR 308 to TEUR 360.

Notes to the balance sheet

The Company's share capital as of 30 June 2010 amounted to EUR 1.967.803.

The Company's equity increased due to the payment to additional paid-in capital carried out by the principal shareholder Unister Holding GmbH (TEUR 410), the net profit (TEUR 517) and conversion of convertible bonds to share capital and additional paid-in capital (TEUR 541).

Accordingly, the deficit not covered by equity (TEUR 1,259) could be eliminated in the first half of the year. As of the balance sheet date on 30 June 2010, the Company's share capital reaches a positive result (TEUR 209).

The provisions in the amount of TEUR 728 include provisions for taxes amounting to TEUR 639. The calculation of provisions for tax was done without accounting for the existing tax loss carry forward. The losses carried forward amount to approx. 93 million EUR as of 31 December 2008. The Company believes that they still exist in spite of the acquisition by the Unister Group according to § 8c (1a) KStG (Corporate tax law), since it incontrovertibly constitutes a reorganisation measure. The compatibility of clause § 8c (1a) KStG with European law is however being reviewed by the European Commission. The result of this review is not foreseeable for the Company (neither in terms of time nor in terms of content). As a result, the provisions for tax are calculated without accounting for the losses carried forward until the situation will be clarified.

Due to the measures above, the balance sheet could be considerably improved. The share capital is positive and the Company's liabilities in the amount of TEUR 1,539 were reduced by TEUR 1,015 to TEUR 524.

Notes to the cash flow statement

The consolidated cash flow statement for the period under review starts with the net profit from the period under review. First, net profit is adjusted for non-cash income and expenses. The changes in working capital are accounted for in the cash flow. In the period under review, cash flow recognises a payment of the shareholder to additional paid-in capital. Cash and cash equivalents comprise the cash items recognised in the balance sheet.

6.2 Reorganisation measures

The reorganisation process has been completed. One of the last goals – eliminating the negative equity and/or the deficit not covered by equity – could be reached during the first half of the year.

6.3 Opportunity and risk report

In the current economic condition, the focusing on online business is increasing since clients are even more price conscious and service providers are more cost-sensitive. Our clients are looking for the best offer for their money, and providers wish to minimize their distribution costs. Considering the unstable economic situation, our clients will rather be cautious with early decisions. We therefore expect a stronger last minute business for financial years 2010 and 2011.

Anyone who wants to be successful in the highly competitive online travel market must be able to respond flexibly to short-term changes in demand. Effective applications for dynamic pricing and packaging, efficient online marketing with core competences in search engine marketing (SEO, SEM) as well as affiliate, newsletter and display promotion are key factors for being successful. In 2010, there is also a lot of competitive pressure on the travel market, particularly for flight and hotel bookings. However, there was a further shift in travel bookings from stationary distribution channels to the Internet, which has reduced the negative impact of the economic crisis on the travel market. If and to which extent the current economic crisis will influence the online travel market during the next months is not yet foreseeable. But due to the reorganisation measures described above as well as the marketing and sales activities carried through, Travel.24.com AG is well prepared for the future.

By means of ongoing early detection and the recognition, assessment and monitoring of potential risks we enable the systematic analysis of current risk situations, on which concrete risk control is based. In organisational terms the risk management system is directly integrated into the Managing Board. The Managing Board observes the risks arising in their respective areas such as IT security as well as legal and fiscal risks. It is crucial that risks are consciously perceived and information on new risks and changes is immediately notified.

6.4 Related party transactions

The business plan provides for the evaluation of the acquired "Travel24" brand as well as the continuation of the Internet-based business activities by using the "travel24.com" and "travel24.de" domains, which permit to organize business activities in a sustainable and profitable way. Unister Holding GmbH acquired the "travel24.com" and "travel24.de" domains as well as the "Travel24" brand at a total purchasing price of EUR 1.5 million. Pursuant to a License Agreement, the Travel24.com AG domains and brand are made available for at least 30 months free of charge. A monthly compensation fee in the amount of TEUR 10 will be due from 1 January 2012 at the earliest.
