Tellza to expand corporate strategy

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwired – April 28, 2015) - Tellza Communications Inc. (TSX:TEL) announced today that it plans to broaden its corporate strategy to include business opportunities beyond the telecom industry.

At our 2015 shareholders meeting, scheduled for June 30th, 2015, we will seek approval to change the name of the Company to Tellza Inc. Our Communications and Technology divisions will continue to execute on their business plans, while we will examine opportunities to grow the Company's business in other directions. "Having successfully grown and integrated our Communications business to over USD $240 Million in annual sales in 2014 and having maintained three years of successive profits, management and the board of directors have concluded that Tellza should explore strategic opportunities in alternative markets while remaining focused on our Communications business." Said Gary Clifford, Executive Chairman of Tellza.
