Item 3. News Release

A news release announcing the material change referred to in this report was issued on April 16, 2010.

Item 4. Summary of Material Change

The Company announced the completion of the merger transaction whereby Dome became a wholly owned subsidiary of Metalline Mining Company ("Metalline").

Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

On April 16, 2010, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization, dated December 4, 2009 (the "Merger Agreement"), among Metalline, the Company and Metalline Mining Delaware, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Metalline ("Merger Sub"), Merger Sub merged with and into Dome as the surviving corporation. As a result, Dome became a wholly owned subsidiary of Metalline.

As a result of the Merger, each outstanding share of the Company common stock on the closing date was converted into the right to receive 0.968818 shares of Metalline common stock. At the closing date this represented approximately $60,132,947 in value to the Company's shareholders. These shares were approved for listing by NYSE Amex. The outstanding warrants of the Company were converted into warrants to receive Metalline shares adjusted for the same exchange ratio.

Brian Edgar, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer prior to the completion of the merger, is now the Chairman of the Metalline Board of Directors. Additionally, Duncan Hsia and Dr. Murray Hitzman were added to the Metalline Board.

As part of the closing, the proceeds of the previously announced special warrant offering by the Company were released from escrow. These funds will be used by
