G4G Capital Corp. Announces Appointment of Robert Carpenter to Board of Directors

G4G Capital Corp. (TSX.V: GGC) (the "Company") – announces the appointment of Robert Carpenter to the Company's board of directors, effective as of November 1, 2016.

Robert Carpenter is a Professional Geoscientist with over 25 years of technical and executive experience for junior and major mining companies. He was co-founder and President and CEO of Kaminak Gold Corporation from 2005 to 2013 and led the company through the acquisition, discovery and maiden resource of the multi-million ounce Coffee Gold Project, located in the White Gold District, Yukon. The project was subsequently acquired by Goldcorp Inc in 2016. He has received awards from the Association for Mineral Exploration of British Columbia for excellence in mineral exploration (2013) and social and environmental stewardship (2008). He completed his Ph.D. at the University of Western Ontario in 2004 where he worked on the newly discovered Meliadine Lake gold deposits that are currently owned by Agnico Eagle.

David D'Onofrio, the President and Chief Executive Officer, states: "Rob's extensive experience identifying and prioritizing drill targets has directly led to major gold discoveries in the White Gold District. He will be a great addition to our board of directors and an invaluable resource to help lead the Company toward its new strategic focus on exploration in the White Gold District of the Yukon Territory. We look forward to Rob being part of our team."
