Oracle Resumes Trading on the TSX Venture Exchange

Vancouver November 3, 2017 – Oracle Energy Corp. (“Oracle” or the “Company”) announces that its shares will resume trading on the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) on Tuesday November 7, 2017 after having undergone a trading resumption review by the Exchange. Resumption of trading is conditional upon the Company announcing, within 30 days of trading resumption, that it has entered into a transaction sufficient to meet continued listings requirements. In the event that the Company fails to announce such a transaction within the 30 day period the Company will be transferred to NEX.

The Company also announces that as part of the termination of the oil and gas transaction announced on June 21, 2017 the Company is owed $175,000 for out of pocket costs but to date has not received any of the amount owing.

The Company is reviewing other potential opportunities in the oil and gas sector.
