

EFFECTIVE DATE FOR COMPLETION OF PLAN OF ARRANGEMENT WITH NEXTVIEW NEW ENERGY LION HONG KONG LIMITED

February 14, 2018
NR18-3

Vancouver, BC – Lithium X Energy Corp. ("Lithium X" or the "Company") (TSXV: LIX) (OTC: LIXXF) is providing an update on the expected completion date (the "Effective Date") of the previously announced plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") with NextView New Energy Lion Hong Kong Limited ("NextView").

All conditions to the completion of the Arrangement have been fulfilled except for: (a) the receipt from NextView of the cash required for NextView to acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares and common share purchase warrants of Lithium X for cash consideration of $2.61 per share and $0.01 per warrant pursuant to the Arrangement; and (b) certain conditions (such as accuracy of representations and warranties and no material adverse effect having occurred) that cannot be satisfied until the Effective Date.

With regard to the cash consideration, NextView has advised the Company that its fund investors have advanced the equity portion of the cash consideration in the amount of US$51.28 million (approximately C$64.6 million) to NextView. NextView has received financing commitments from each of Tibet Summit Resources Co., Limited and Tajik-China Mining Co., Ltd. under which they agree, jointly and severally, to provide NextView with up to C$265 million to fund the aggregate cash consideration, as described in more detail in the Company's information circular dated January 3, 2018 (the "Circular") under the heading "NextView Financing Arrangements". As contemplated in the Circular, NextView has advised the Company that it is seeking alternative funding from a commercial lender in order to obtain the required funds on the most competitive terms available and that the proposed facility with the commercial lender is currently anticipated to be established and funded shortly but has been delayed by, and until after, the Chinese New Year holiday.

The reverse break-fee of C$20 million, an amount that is significantly higher than the market standard for break-fees, is being held by the depositary in Canada and the Company expects the remaining funds will be wired to the depositary during the first full week of March, 2018. The Company expects that the Effective Time for completion of the Arrangement will occur the day following the Depositary's receipt of the required funds.

Additional information regarding the terms of the Arrangement is set out in the Circular, which is filed under the Company's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com.

About Lithium X

Lithium X Energy Corp. is a lithium exploration and development company with a goal of becoming a low-cost supplier for the burgeoning lithium battery industry. The Company holds two projects in the prolific "Lithium Triangle" in mining friendly Salta province, Argentina as well as participating in the Clayton Valley in Nevada through its ownership interest in Pure Energy Minerals Limited ("Pure Energy"). The Company's wholly owned flagship project is the Sal de los Angeles lithium brine project. The project consists of approximately 8,747.50 hectares of Salar de Diablillos, and has an NI 43-101 mineral resource estimate of 1.037 million tonnes of lithium carbonate equivalent in the indicated category and 1.007 million tonnes of lithium carbonate equivalent in the inferred category. The Company's second Argentinian project, the Arizaro lithium brine project, consists of 33,846 hectares covering part of the western and eastern portions of the Salar de Azario, one of the largest known salt lakes in the world. In Nevada, the Company consolidated its Clayton Valley holdings with those held by Pure Energy, in the process becoming Pure Energy's largest shareholder, holding approximately 19% of Pure Energy's outstanding common shares.
